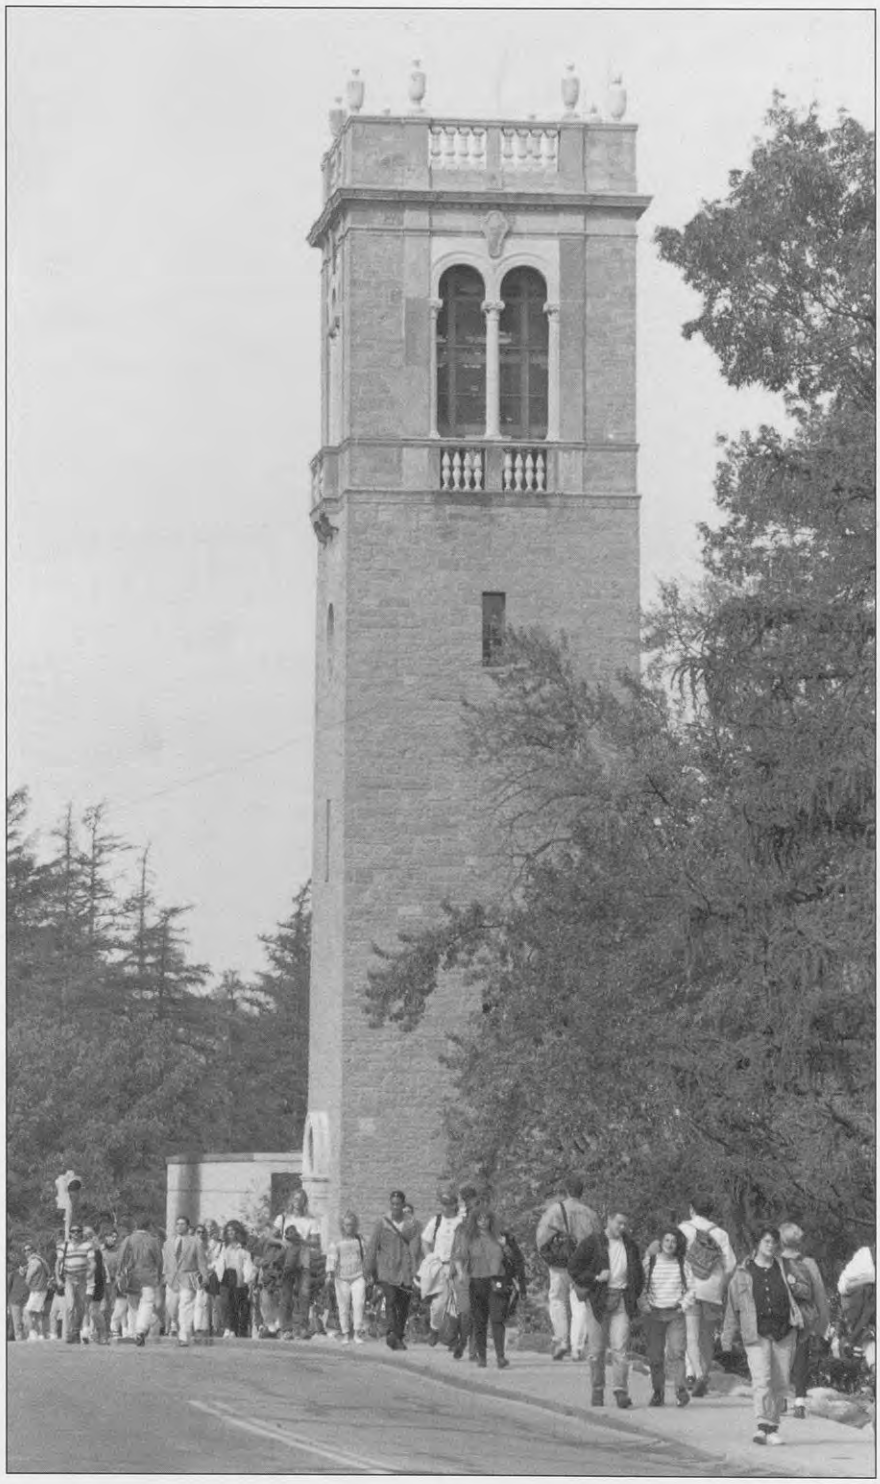
ACADEMICS & ATHLETICS



Achieving national recognition in both academics and athletics is a difficult challenge for universities today. The University of Wisconsin is one of the few institutions that has earned praise for its work in the classroom and on the field of play.

With its admittance to the Association of American Universities (AAU), the UW-Madison has been recognized for its solid reputation in the academic world. Indeed, only 56 schools nationally are in the AAU.

Balancing the academic requirements of an outstanding institution with the demands of collegiate athletic competition is difficult. However, the University of Wisconsin has attacked the challenge and succeeded.

Inclusion in the Association of American Universities and back-to-back bowl championships on the gridiron in 1994-95 are evidence that academics and athletics do indeed mix at the University of Wisconsin.

MADISON

"QUOTE, UNQUOTE"

"Madison is the campus that's never mentioned when the 'What are the prettiest schools in the world?' question pops up. But it should be!"

BOB WOOD, BIG TEN COUNTRY

Madison is home to both the University of Wisconsin and the state capital. One of the Midwest's most vibrant communities, Madison offers an endearing quality of life to both its residents and students.

The centerpiece of the city is the State Capitol. The campus is west of the Capitol and offers easy access to shopping malls, restaurants for every taste and popular night spots.

With a diverse population of nearly 200,000, Madison offers the unique combination of big-city excitement and small-town charm. Madison is an action-oriented community that promotes participation in government, education, sports, arts and recreation.

The 900-acre campus is located among gentle rolling hills and wooded areas between Lakes Mendota and Monona. Filmmakers have selected the campus as the location for films about college life; one was the 1986 summer hit Back to School with Rodney Dangerfield.

One of the best loved and most visited areas of the campus is the Memorial Union Terrace, where students sit and study or socialize against a backdrop of sailboats, sailboards and swimmers enjoying Lake Mendota.

NATION'S NO. 2 CITY BY MONEY MAGAZINE

Madison was listed second on Money magazine's 1993 list of the nation's most livable cities. Following are excerpts from Money's seventh annual survey.

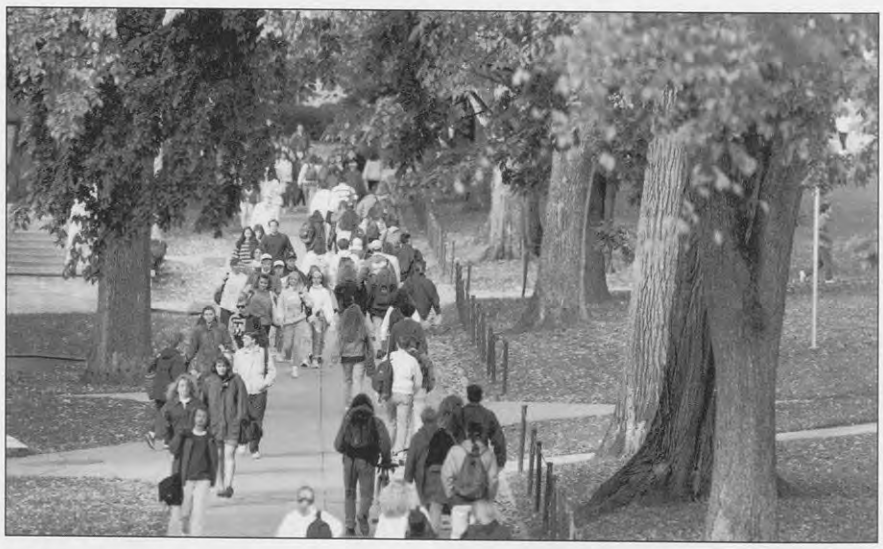
"A popular t-shirt sold in Madison describes the state capital and home of the University of Wisconsin as the 'alternative to reality.' That's about right. Madison, which has ranked in our top 10 for the past three years, offers special attractions."

"Madison's awesome beauty and laid-back style appeal to most everyone. Walk along State Street's thriving pedestrian mall and you'll see the elderly on bicycles and yuppies and hippies moving around the street vendors, New Age stores and coffee shops."

"For a relatively small city, Madison offers a number of surprises. For example, you can find Caribbean, Ethiopian, Thai and more than 20 other reasonably priced types of ethnic restaurants."



THE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

The University of Wisconsin, founded in 1848, has been recognized throughout its history as one of the nation's leading institutions of higher learning. U.S. News, in a 1993 issue, included UW-Madison in a list of the "Best College Buys."

From the initial class of 17, the student population has grown to a current enrollment of more than 40,000 students, the sixth-largest school in the U.S.

- Wisconsin is one of just 56 members of the Association of American Universities, the most prestigious organization in higher education in the U.S.
- University libraries house more than 5.4 million volumes, 13th-most in the nation according to the Association of Research Libraries.
- The UW had $372 million in research and development funds in 1994, third-most in the nation according to a National Science Foundation survey.
- Wisconsin received $164 million in voluntary support in 1994, ranking first nationally among public colleges and universities.
- According to a Standard & Poor's survey, Wisconsin is one of the nation's top producers of corporate executives, ranking second in undergraduate degrees.
- U.S. News & World Report rated the UW-Madison's sociology department as No. 1 in the nation. Additionally, the magazine ranked psychology 12th, history 9th, political science 10th, economics 11th and engineering 12th.
- The 1983 Assessment of Research-Doctorate Programs in the United States reported that 15 departments on campus were rated in the top 10 of the nation.
- The University boasts the top-rated Department of Education in the nation according to 1990 and 1994 studies conducted at the University of Illinois.
- The Wisconsin Alumni Association is the second-largest independently financed group in the United States.
- Through its history, the UW-Madison has produced 12 Nobel Prize winners, 22 Pulitzer Prize winners, 44 members of the National Academy of Sciences, 14 members of the National Academy of Engineering and two members of the National Academy of Education.
- The University was a runner-up in the 1993 Rochester Institute of Technology/USA Today Quality Cup competition.

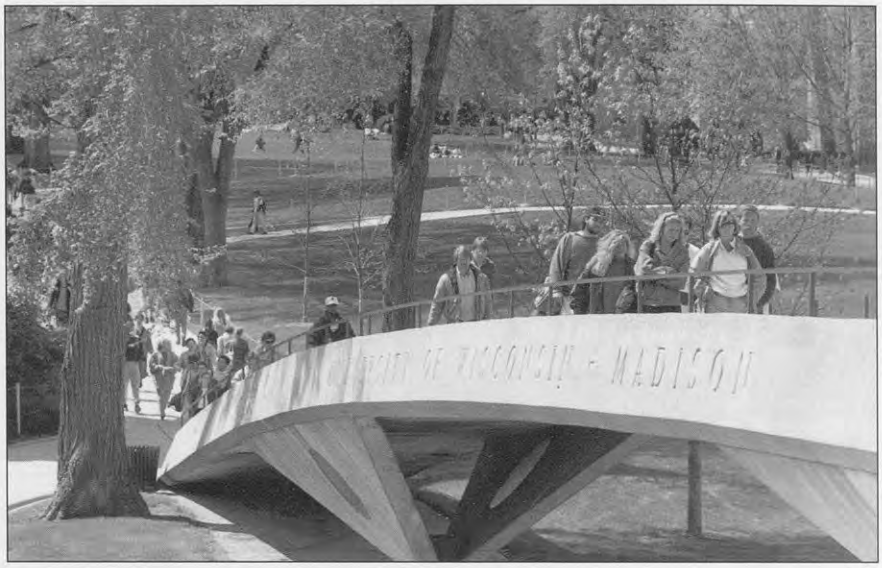
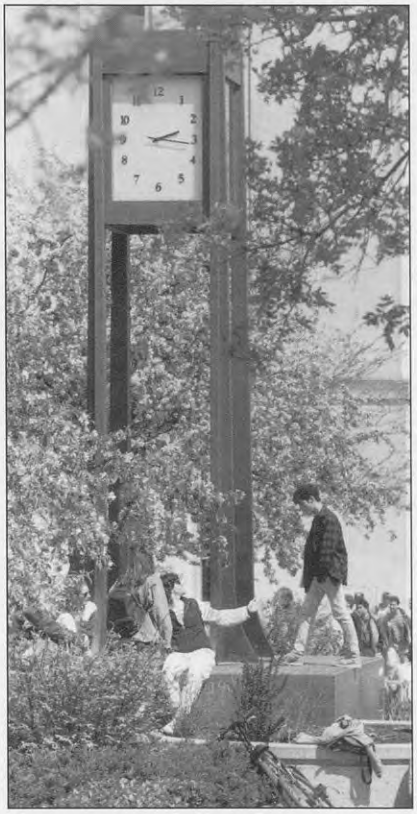
THE WORD ON THE UW

"Athletics is a connecting point among the people of Wisconsin. Win or lose, people like to talk and to reflect on sports, and they like to be part of the excitement and camaraderie that college athletics inspires. The success of Badger athletics poses our university in the national spotlight and offers the country another window through which to view our mission."

CHANCELLOR DAVID WARD





FISKE'S GUIDE TO COLLEGES 1994

"A list of first-rate academic programs at Madison would be as complete as a college catalog elsewhere. All in all, it is a non-stop festival that students sum up as 'diverse, intellectual, fashionable and moderately hedonistic'. The UW-Madison remains one of life's gold mines for those willing to dig."

YALE DAILY NEWS: INSIDER'S GUIDE TO COLLEGES 1991

"You'll find opportunities at Madison limited only by your ambition. Almost all departments at Madison receive solid reviews from students."

HOW TO GET AN IVY LEAGUE EDUCATION AT A STATE UNIVERSITY

"In many ways, UW-Madison provides an excellent college environment: rigorous academic standards, a competent hard-working student body, a diversity of political and social views passionately espoused, a large population of international students, school spirit and a college town that is cosmopolitan yet hang-loose."

BARRON'S 300 BEST BUYS IN COLLEGE EDUCATION

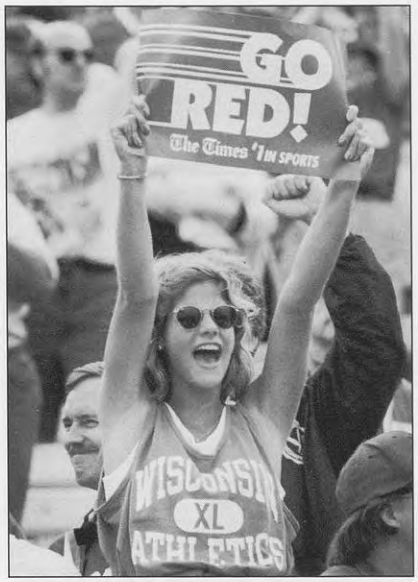
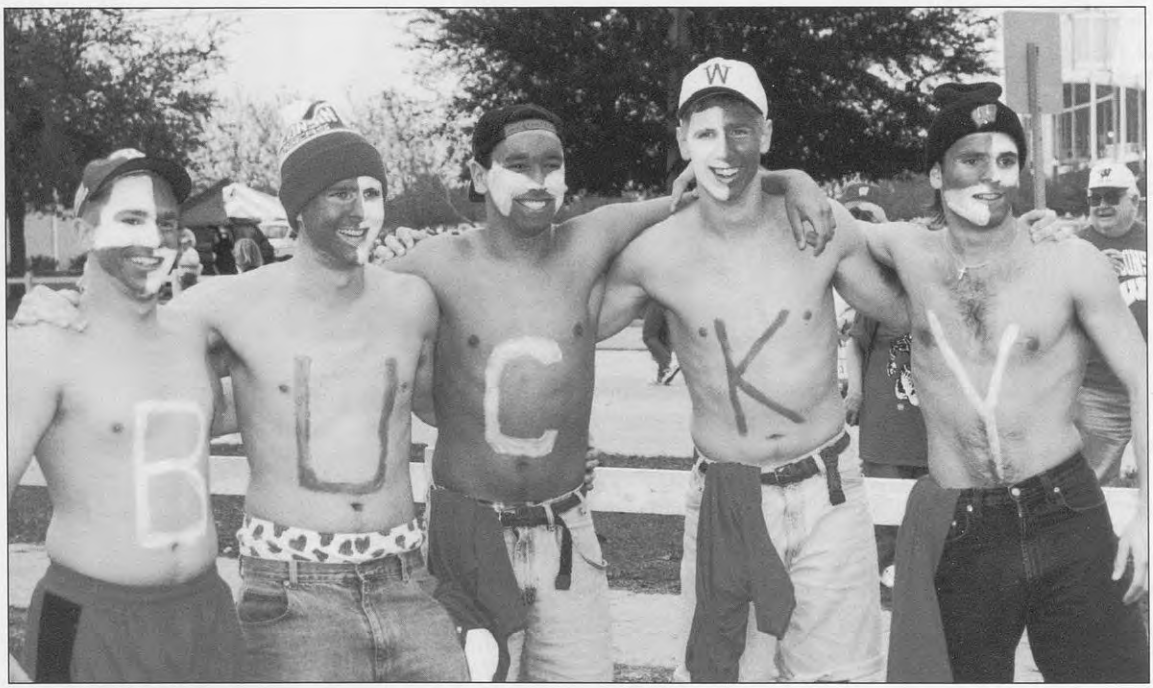
Badger Faithful



"QUOTE, UNQUOTE"

"We practice all week knowing we're going to be out there in front of 75,000 to 80,000 people. When you come down that tunnel, it always has you tingling. The red; your friends; your family. I can't even begin to explain how exciting it is."

Former Badger Lee DeRamus



Big Ten Conference

From its beginning 100 years ago, the Big Ten Conference continues to be recognized as one of the premier athletic leagues in the nation. In a time when consistent excellence is difficult to maintain, the Big Ten continues to be a showcase for the finest achievements in athletics and academics.

ON-FIELD SUCCESS

Big Ten teams performed well on the field as the league posted a 4-1 bowl game record and registered a 27-11-1 non-conference mark. Those records were the best by the league since 1975 and 1985, respectively. The Big Ten has claimed a record four bowl wins each of the last two years.

EXPOSURE

More evidence of Big Ten football's popularity is found in the consistently high TV ratings and number of appearances. With bowl bids secured for its top five finishers — Rose (champion), Florida Citrus (second), Outback (third), Alamo (fourth) and Sun (fifth) — the league has the best post-season arrangement.

The Big Ten features 11 institutions in eight states and reaches into such metropolitan areas as Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, New York, Cincinnati, Columbus, Indianapolis, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

TRADITION

The Big Ten celebrates its centennial season of gridiron action this fall. Much of the league's storied history is built around legendary players and coaches like Alan Ameche, Red Grange, Tom Harmon, Nile Kinnick, Archie Griffin, Crazylegs Hirsch, Dick Butkus, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler and Joe Paterno.

FAN SUPPORT

For the second consecutive season, the Big Ten set an all-time attendance record as 4.4 million fans attended league games in 1994. In the 33 years that the NCAA has maintained attendance records, the Big Ten has ranked among the top two conferences nationally every season. A conference-record 31 games were sellouts last fall.

Six conference teams ranked in the nation's top 20 for average attendance, including the Badgers' climb to No. 8. The Big Ten was the national attendance leader in football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball last season.

More people watched Big Ten football on television last fall via the conference's national outlets of ABC and ESPN than any other league. More than 25 percent of the nation's television sets are in the league's eight-state territory.

KING OF BOWLS

The Big Ten is the only conference in the United States with automatic bowl bids for its top five conference finishers

Champion	Rose Bowl
Runner-up	Florida Citrus Bowl
Third-place	Outback Bowl
Fourth-place	Alamo Bowl
Fifth-place	Sun Bowl

BIG TEN CENTENNIAL

The 1995 Big Ten football season will be something to celebrate as the Conference marks its centennial. Special events will take place on each Big Ten campus throughout the 1995-96 year. During the summer of '95, the 100th anniversary celebration will be kicked off in Chicago with the "Big Ten Centennial Week."

DISTINGUISHED LEAGUE

Established in 1896, the Big Ten Conference is the oldest intercollegiate conference of major academic and research institutions in the nation. The Big Ten is also the only league in the nation whose membership is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of academic and research institutions in the U.S.

Academic Support

Academic and Student Affairs Program

The primary objective of the Department of Academic and Student Affairs office is to ensure the academic success of all UW student-athletes. Counseling and advising services, plus a number of academic help programs, are offered to all student-athletes at the University.

The academic and student affairs staff is available to assist the UW's 700 student-athletes in registration and course selection, monitor progress toward degrees, offer career guidance and serve as valuable resource people.

Staff members work with student-athletes who desire extra academic help. The department utilizes the services of more than 100 tutors to provide one-on-one assistance or group study help.

The department arranges for exam proctoring, offers advice on resume preparation and coordinates the grant-in-aid program. Support groups are offered to students who become medically or academically ineligible for competition.

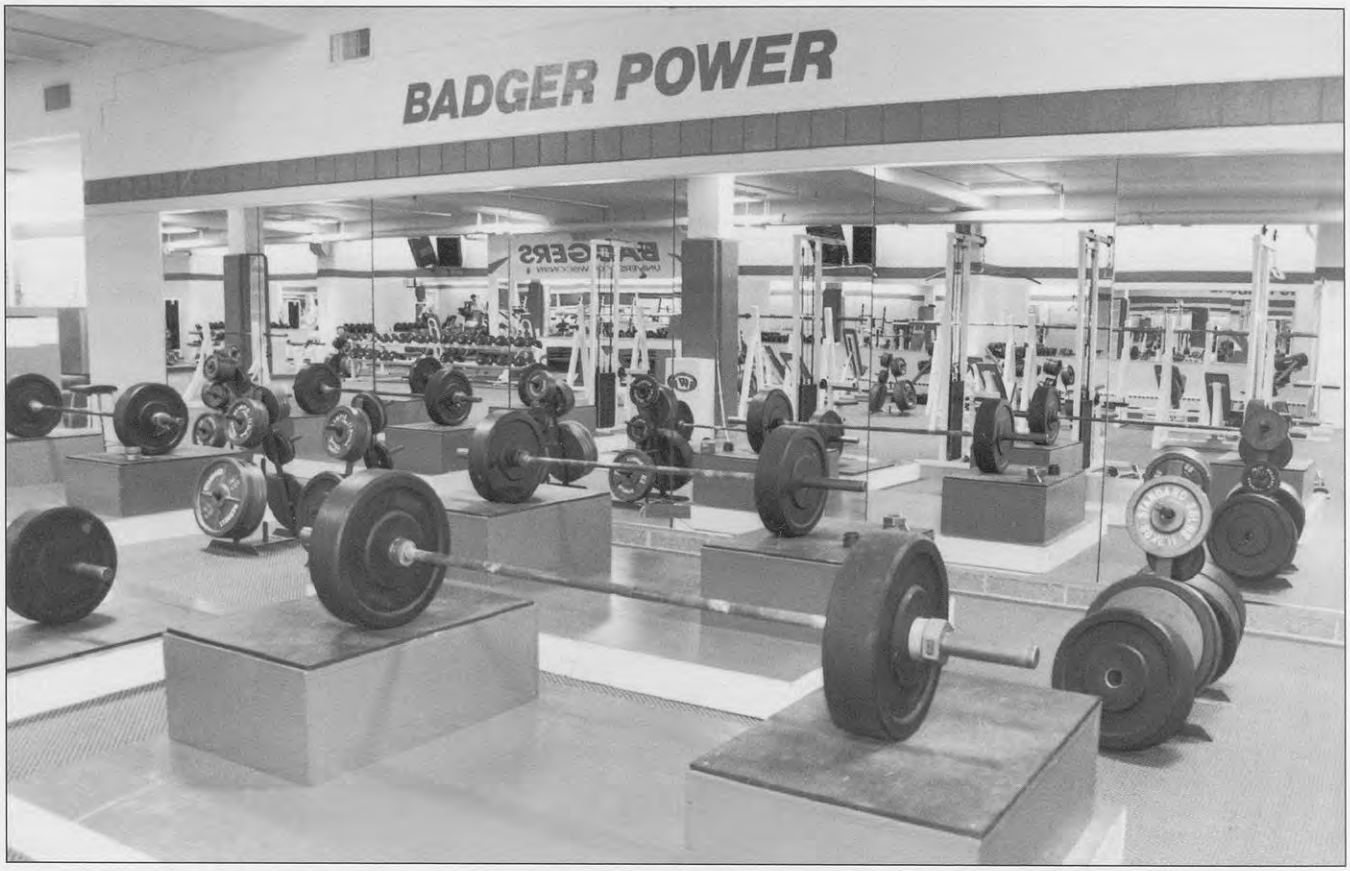
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING



The Strength & Conditioning Program

The Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is a sophisticated blend of science, technology and one-on-one attention to each athlete. Throughout the year, UW athletes spend more time working on strength and conditioning than any other aspect of their game.

During the off-season, athletes work on strength improvement, speed, power, agility and conditioning. The in-season program is devoted to continuation of strength gains and performance-related conditioning.

Each year when freshman players arrive, baseline measures of strength, speed, power, agility, flexibility and endurance are collected. Measures of body composition, weight and frame size are also recorded. With this information, goals are set for development and maintenance. Individual programs are established for each player by strength and conditioning coach John Dettmann.

The UW also offers a sports nutrition program, coordinated by Scott Hettenbach. The program assists athletes in meeting their nutritional demands and body composition goals. Badger athletes also benefit from guidance and support from Robert Hackett and Stieg Theander.

Sports Medicine

The Training & Sports Medicine Program

The Wisconsin Sports Medicine program features state-of-the-art facilities and the outstanding services of leading sports medicine and health care professionals.

Headquartered in the McClain Center, the department also maintains facilities at Camp Randall Stadium, the UW Field House, the Natatorium, the Nielsen Tennis Stadium and the Dane County Coliseum.

The Sports Medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Staff members utilize Cybex strength-testing devices, provide dietary analyses, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve an athlete's flexibility.

The UW is one of a handful of schools with an on-site X-ray machine, enabling physicians to quickly and thoroughly evaluate injuries and prescribe treatment.

Athletic trainers and physicians work together to design rehabilitation programs for injured athletes. A wide variety of facilities and equipment, including a rehabilitation swimming pool, Cybex equipment, the Impulse Inertial Exercise System, Stairmasters, and Fitron Bicycles, help athletes rehabilitate injuries and minimize the loss of general fitness during recuperative time.

Dennis Helwig, a 1974 UW graduate, coordinates the Sports Medicine Program. He is assisted by five athletic trainers, one physical therapist, two graduate assistant trainers and 30 student trainers. Team physician coverage is headed by Dr. Ben Graf and Dr. Greg Landry of the UW Hospitals and Clinics. Orthopedist Dr. John Orwin rounds out the medical staff.

EQUIPMENT ROOM

The Wisconsin Equipment staff handles all the ordering and inventory of Badger athletic gear for the football team.

Director Jim McCormick oversees an operation that custom fits all Badger football players for pads, jerseys, shoes and helmets.

The state-of-the-art equipment center is the headquarters of the Wisconsin staff. Its unique design and location in the locker room makes it easily accessible to all players and functional on both game and practice days.

McCormick and his staff work closely with Coach Barry Alvarez to insure that Wisconsin football players have both the safest and most-innovative equipment available to ensure peak performance.

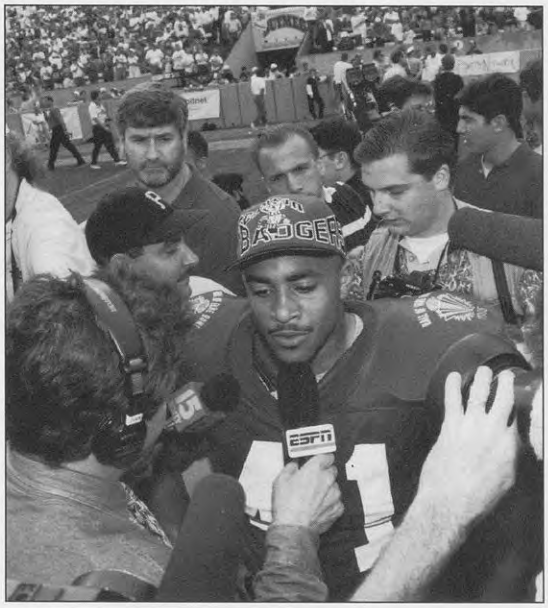
MEDIA EXPOSURE

Playing college football in the Big Ten and at the University of Wisconsin is an opportunity for success, excitement and exposure.

Badger football is unique with its intense media coverage. Among the many media outlets that cover Wisconsin football are three local television stations, three radio stations, three major newspapers -- two in Madison and one in Milwaukee -- a student paper and a specialty publication dedicated solely to Wisconsin sports.

Coach Barry Alvarez, Badger players and the Wisconsin team were featured in nearly every major metropolitan newspaper during their Rose Bowl run of 1993. The Badgers also performed on ABC or ESPN television a school-record seven times each of the last two years.

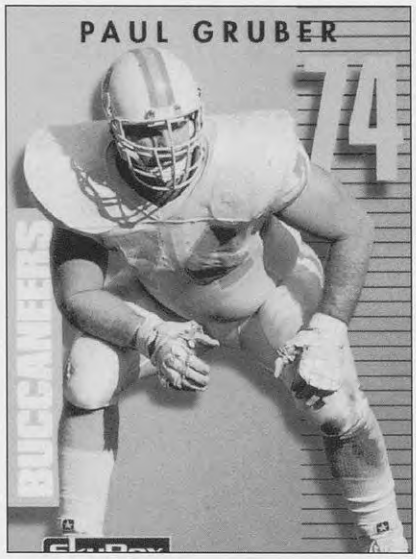
All games are broadcast on a state-wide radio network. Home games are replayed on television each week. Alvarez has a weekly media session that routinely draws 20-plus reporters. Local media members cover Badger football on a daily basis, interviewing players after every practice.



Terrell Fletcher is interviewed live by ESPN after the Badgers' Hall of Fame Bowl win over Duke.

Coach Barry Alvarez meets the media in the McClain Facility Auditorium after a game.

NFL Badgers



If getting a chance to play in the National Football League is a dream, the Wisconsin program can be your ticket to earning that opportunity.

Playing in the Big Ten and at Wisconsin attracts the attention of pro coaches and scouts.

Talent evaluators frequent the Madison campus to watch films, speak with coaches and rate the prospects of all team members.

The Badger staff holds a pro scouts day each spring when evaluators are invited to campus to view a workout session showcasing players' abilities.

Pursuing a pro football dream is up to you. The University of Wisconsin will, however, enhance your chances.

Camp Randall Stadium

Camp Randall Stadium, built in 1917, is the home for Wisconsin's football team. The current capacity (76,129) ranks among the nation's largest school-owned stadiums.

The Facility

Distinguished by its impressive double-deck structure and horseshoe design, Camp Randall Stadium has been the Badgers' facility since its opening game on Nov. 3, 1917. It has been host to 416 UW football games and attracted nearly 19 million fans.

Besides the field, Camp Randall houses the athletic department offices, lounges and study areas for student-athletes, as well as film, training and weight rooms and a display of football memorabilia.

The Stadium is the centerpiece of Wisconsin's athletic complex. Located on the same block on the west side of campus are the Dave McClain Athletic Facility, the state-of-the-art indoor practice building, and the Wisconsin Field House.

Crowds and Success

Wisconsin set a school record in 1994 when an average of 77,328 fans (99.5 percent of capacity) attended games at Camp Randall Stadium. Since Alvarez came to Madison, attendance at Wisconsin home games has improved 85 percent.

The UW has drawn more than 70,000 spectators to 72 games since 1970, including a record 80,024 against Michigan in 1978.

Success on the field has also been evident in Camp Randall Stadium. The Badgers have posted a 13-2-2 home mark the last three years.

The History

Camp Randall Stadium and its grounds had a rich history prior to its affiliation with Wisconsin athletics.

In the days before the Civil War, the site was owned by the Wisconsin Agricultural Society, which held its annual state fair on the grounds. When hostilities broke out in 1861, the society gave the land to the government for a major military training center. More than 70,000 troops attended training drills at the Camp Randall complex.

After peace was restored nationally, the land was returned to state fair property. The fair later moved to Milwaukee, and Wisconsin's Civil War veterans urged the legislature to purchase the land. In 1893, the state presented the site to the university as a memorial athletic field.

Intercollegiate athletics began on campus in 1881, and football joined the scene in 1889. The first games were played on the lower part of campus. The stadium was built at its present site in 1913. A tragic collapse of the wooden bleachers in 1915 prompted the UW to make plans for concrete stands.

Stadium Construction

Two years later, a 10,000-seat concrete stadium was built with a grant of $15,000 from the state legislature. The rest of the money came from department revenues.

The first game played in the present Camp Randall Stadium was a thrilling 10-7 homecoming victory over Minnesota in 1917. Capacity of the structure has increased several times, jumping to 51,000 by 1951.

A revision of the seating arrangements in 1955 boosted the capacity to 52,788. In 1958, the running track was removed, the playing field was lowered 10 feet and capacity was increased to 63,435. A second deck on the west side was added in 1966, raising the capacity to 77,745. Restructuring in the student section in '94, lowered capacity to its present level of 76,129. The facility is designed so that all seats point toward the center of the field, providing excellent sight lines.

The Communications Center, which is one of the Midwest's best facilities for working media, was built after the 1966 season. The three-level structure includes areas for media, game personnel, department officials and patrons.

Facility improvements have been continued into this decade with the installation of an artificial turf playing field in the summer of 1990 and a computerized scoreboard and message center added in 1992.

Athletic Facilities

McClain Facility

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility, opened in 1988, is a symbol of the Athletic Department's commitment to maintaining a first-class sports program.

The 166,264-square foot facility compares favorably with the best indoor training centers in the nation. Named in honor of the late Wisconsin football coach Dave McClain, the structure provides a suitable environment for practice during inclement weather.

A 76,380-square foot main floor features an artificial surface field (90 yards) with a ceiling high enough for kicking. The lower level includes locker rooms, training facilities (including on-site X-ray machines) and a spacious weight room.

On the second level, a theater-style auditorium (seating for 150), classrooms for individual position meetings and a players' lounge are some of the highlights. The entire facility cost $9.5 million to build.

McClain, the Badgers' coach from 1978-85, led the UW to bowl games in 1981, 1982 and 1984. He died of a heart attack in the spring of 1986.

Fall Training Camp

The University of Wisconsin is one of the few schools in the nation that has an off-campus facility for its fall training camp. The Badgers spend their session at the Holy Name Seminary in Middleton, Wis.

The squad has access to several practice fields, an auditorium, classroom facilities, a swimming pool, game room, dining areas and living quarters for players and staff.

Besides offering tremendous facilities for training and practice, the Seminary allows for a learning environment that is free from distractions.

With its multiple grass practice fields as well as dining, meeting and sleeping facilities, it is the top fall training camp facility in the Big Ten Conference.

"QUOTE, UNQUOTE"

"Having an off-campus site to hold our fall training camp is a real advantage. It gives us a chance to spend a lot of time together without distractions. That helps develop chemistry and comraderie. The site itself is extremely well-equipped in terms of fields, meeting rooms, a dining hall and a pool."

BARRY ALVAREZ

WALK-ONS

Not all high school football players earn scholarships to compete in college. That doesn't mean there isn't an opportunity for those individuals, especially at the University of Wisconsin, where walk-on athletes have a history of contribution.

The Badgers' walk-on program has produced a number of players who were contributors to the school's recent successes.

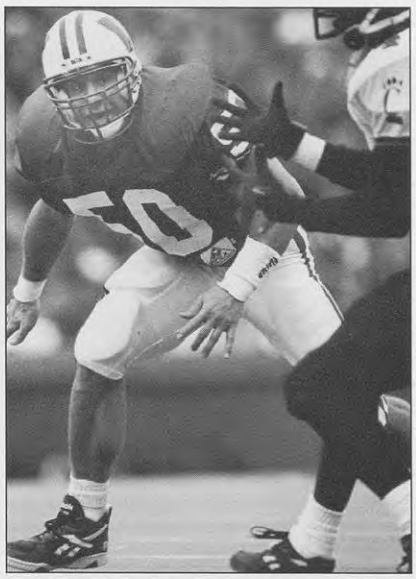
Lineman Joe Panos became a walk-on success story. Unrecruited out of high school, Panos transferred from UW-Whitewater in 1991. He changed positions at UW, earned a scholarship, became a three-year starter, captained the Rose Bowl team and now plays for Philadelphia.

"I certainly appreciated the opportunity that the Wisconsin coaches gave me to prove my worth," Panos said. "There is a genuine attempt at helping walk-ons develop, both as players and people."

Panos became the emotional leader of the winningest team in history. "Walk-ons have that extra drive because they're trying to prove something," said Alvarez. "I love that spirit and determination in my players."

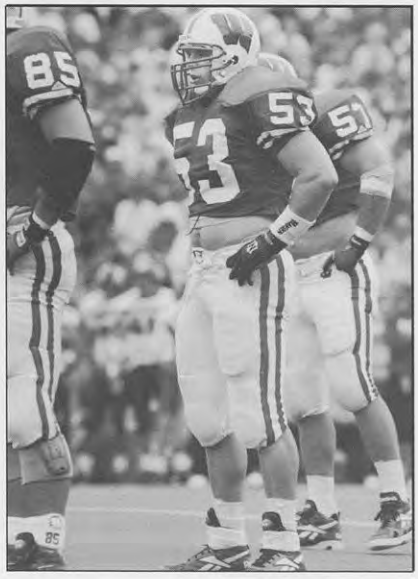
Among the walk-on success stories under Alvarez are academic all-Big Ten selections Panos, Korey Manley, Jeff Rasmussen, Sam Veit and Chad Cascadden. Veit is the school's second all-time leading punter and Cascadden earned a free agent tryout with the New York Jets. Aaron Norvell was the team's leading tackler as a senior and Chris Hein and Rick Schnetzky were starters on the Rose and Hall of Fame Bowl teams.

"Walk-ons are important to the success of our program," Alvarez said. "There's a history of walk-on success here. Without question, there is a very real chance to earn a scholarship through this program."



Linebackers Chris Hein (above) and Chad Cascadden are former walk-ons who earned scholarships at the UW.

Joe Panos went from walk-on to team captain to the NFL during his career.

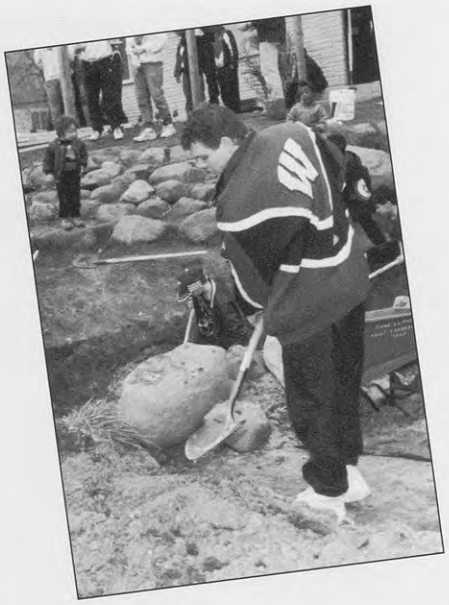


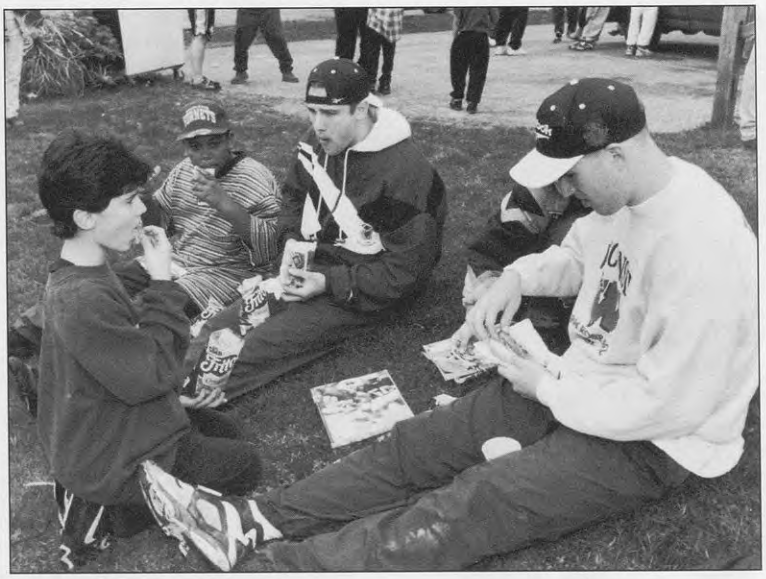
Community Involvement

Every off-season, the Badger football team works on a community service project to give something back to the city of Madison. Wisconsin players take great pride in their city, and the community takes great interest in the football program.

Last spring, members of the Hall of Fame Bowl champions lended physical support in a landscaping and clean-up day in the Allied Drive neighborhood. The Badgers then signed autographs and tossed footballs with kids from the area.

Additionally, Badger football players make appearances throughout the year at functions in the area. One of the fall highlights is the team's annual Fan Appreciation Day where players are available for photos, autographs and conversation.





Badger Notables

Alvarez vs. Wisconsin — Coach Barry Alvarez was a linebacker for the Nebraska teams which played Wisconsin in 1965 and 1966. In the 1966 contest, Alvarez intercepted a John Ryan pass at the Nebraska 28-yard line and returned it 25 yards. Nebraska won both games — 37-0 (in '65) and 31-3 ('66) — in which Alvarez participated.

Ameche, Alan — Born in Italy as Lino Dante Ameche, the future Heisman Trophy winner changed his name to Alan at age 16. Lino, in his mind, was not rugged enough.

Widely respected for his strength as a youth, he won the light heavy-weight Golden Gloves novice championship of Kenosha by default. All of his rivals dropped out after learning Ameche had entered the tournament.

During his college recruitment, he was being heavily pressured to attend Notre Dame by Fred Miller, the philanthropic owner of Milwaukee's Miller Brewing Co. Wisconsin partisans, however, threatened a boycott against the buying and consumption of Miller beer if Ameche attended ND. Under threat of boycott, Miller backed off and Ameche signed with Wisconsin.

In 1953, when rules changes made it necessary for him to be an all-purpose player, Ameche played defense with such ferocity that he ended up playing 55 minutes or more in each game, prompting a nickname, "The Iron Horse."

Ameche, drafted by Baltimore, eventually turned down a lucrative offer to join the pro wrestling tour and signed with the Colts. He led the NFL in rushing his first season and was named Rookie of the Year.

Ameche passed away following heart surgery in 1988 at the age of 55.

Artificial turf — The artificial turf at Camp Randall Stadium was first installed in 1968. Wisconsin was the second school in the nation to install Tartan Turf, which was designed by the 3M Company. The $210,000 project was funded by the UW Parking and Transportation Board in exchange for permission to convert practice fields on the north end of Camp Randall into a 500-car parking lot. That initial surface turned black in some areas when the green fiber tips broke off, so 3M sprayed the field green for the 1969 season.

Badger nickname — The sports program's nickname, "Badgers," was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin. The territory was dubbed the "Badger State," not because of animals in the region, but rather an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Prospectors came to the state looking for minerals. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bakken, Jim — Wisconsin's special events coordinator played 17 years in the NFL for St. Louis, setting almost all of the team's placekicking records and retiring as the team's all-time leading scorer. He set NFL records in '70 converting seven of nine field goals in a 28-14 win over Pittsburgh. Bakken was selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1962 draft by general manager Elroy Hirsch, the former Badger great.

Band caps — When a Badger team wins an athletic contest, members of the band turn their hats around and wear them backwards. The practice started in the 1920s to symbolize the band looking back at the victory in days when they marched out with the departing crowd.

Bucky Badger — Badgers in various forms have been recognized as the school mascot for decades. The version currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white letter sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by artist Art Evans. At that time, the badger went by names like Benny, Buddy, Bernie, Bobby and Bouncey. Art Lentz, the department's publicity director, had the idea to bring the mascot to life.

The original badger mascot was too vicious to control. On more than one occasion, the live badger escaped handlers before a sideline hero recaptured the animal with a flying tackle. It was decided in the interest of fan and player safety that Wisconsin's mascot be retired to the Madison Zoo. The Badger Yearbook replaced the live badger with a small racoon named Regdab (badger backwards) and passed it off as a "badger in a racoon coat."

In 1949, a student in the university's art department, Connie Conrad, was commissioned to mold a paper-mache badger head. Gymnast and cheerleader, Bill Sagal, of Plymouth, Wis., was directed by homecoming chair Bill Sachse, to wear the outfit at the homecoming game. A contest was staged to name the popular mascot. The winner was Buckingham U. Badger, or Bucky. The name apparently came from the lyrics in a song which encouraged the football team to "buck right through that line."

Bucky Badger has persevered through the years, even surviving a threat by then assistant attorney general, Howard Koop, in 1973. He suggested that Bucky be replaced by Henrietta Holstein, a loveable and productive cow. Koop argued that "kids love cows. A generation could grow up supporting the university and Henrietta Holstein." Koop's effort to overthrow Bucky failed.

Bucky even survived a cameo appearance by Sports Illustrated writer Rick Telander. In preparation for a book about the athletic department, Telander wore Bucky's costume at a '91 volleyball game. Telander overcame "terminal claustrophobia" in his appearance as Bucky.

Bud Song — An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "Budweiser, Here Comes the King," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karmen for Budweiser beer commercials. Copyrighted by Elsmere Music, Inc. in 1971, the song has become legendary at the University because of its polka-like rhythm. Band director Michael Leckrone said the song's popularity got started at a 1975 hockey game. "The crowd wanted to hear a polka," he said. "I didn't have any polkas. We had, just by accident, this beer commercial in the tunes we play. I told the band if we substituted the word 'Wisconsin' for 'Budweiser' it would work."

Leckrone said the song became a football tradition after a 1978 come-from-behind victory over Oregon. "Wisconsin was behind by three touchdowns, and the crowd was really dead. I played the song to get everyone pepped up. About 20 seconds after that, Wisconsin scored a touchdown. I played it again, and Wisconsin scored another touchdown. From then on, the band could never play enough 'Bud.'"

Fifth Quarter — The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer with the band as they play traditional favorites, like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song. Originally, the post-game concert was designed to give the fans something to listen to on their way out of the stadium, but it developed into a post-game party as the band built in audience participation.

Graduating law students — At the homecoming game, graduating law students throw canes over the crossbar of the goal post in a pre-game ceremony. If students catch their cane, legend claims they will win their first case. If the cane is dropped, the case will be lost. The custom originated at Harvard and came to the UW-Madison in 1910.

"Hard Rocks" — The 1951 Wisconsin defense, known as the "Hard Rocks," led the country in total defense (154.8 per game) and was second in rushing defense (66.8). That defense allowed only 5.9 points per game and actually outscored the opponents 58-53 for the season. The defense was so terrorizing that the athletic department received a letter from one fan asking Wisconsin to "punt on first down" so he could see more of the defensive platoon.

Eight of the nine seniors on the "Hard Rocks" scored in their careers. The ninth, Bill Lane, came close. With Indiana backed up deep in its own territory for a punt, the seniors told Lane they would refrain from rushing in order to form a wedge, or "meatchopper," for him to run behind and score. Much to the seniors' dismay, freshman Don Voss missed the call and blocked the punt.

After the season, the defensive platoon challenged the offense in a charity game with one interesting twist. The offensive team could have the ball all the time, since the defense felt it could outscore its opponents even without the ball.

Hirsch, Elroy "Crazy Legs" — Though he only played one season in Madison, Hirsch's legacy grew through 18 years as Wisconsin's athletic director and many more as a goodwill ambassador.

Hirsch was first tagged "Crazy Legs" on Sept. 26, 1942, after a 60-yard touchdown run vs. Notre Dame prompted a local writer to say, "His crazy legs were gyrating." After leaving Wisconsin, he starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams.

During those days in L.A., he kept busy by making three movies, including "Crazy Legs, All-American" in which he portrayed himself. After retiring as a player, he worked in the Rams' front office before returning to Madison as athletic director from 1969-1987.

His No. 40, the number he wore at every stop in his football career but one, is retired at Wisconsin. Because of a mandatory league numbering system he wore No. 80 (double-40) for the Chicago Rockets, but had the No. 40 stitched on the inside of his jersey.

Pictured above is the annual cane ceremony on homecoming. Law students who catch their canes are supposed to win their first case. Those who drop the canes will also drop their first case.

Leckrone, Michael — If the Wisconsin band is the heartbeat of spirit at UW football games, Director Michael Leckrone is its pacemaker. A merciless drill sergeant, he takes the field like a conquering general. During a football trip to Las Vegas, his band's performance earned the headline "Best Show in Town" in the local paper. Leckrone has maintained the dual role of band director and arranger, which are jobs normally divided at other schools. Leckrone is credited with beginning the "Fifth Quarter" ritual, one of the most entertaining post-game celebrations in college football.

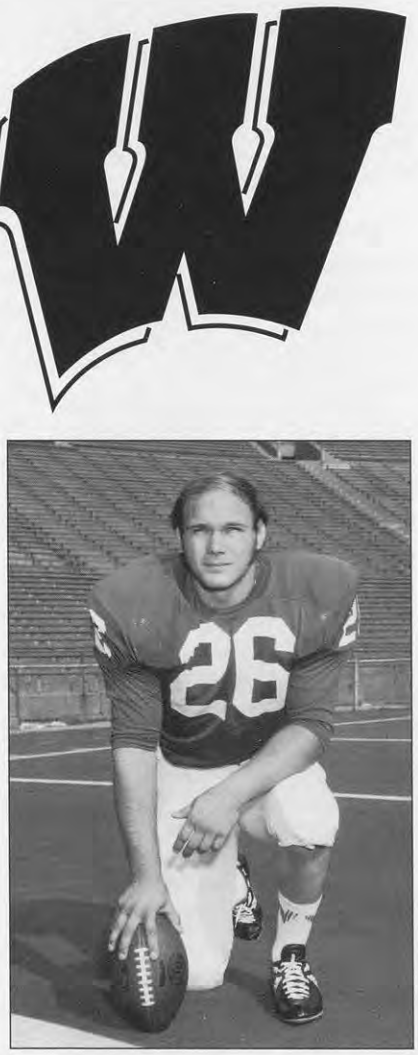
Marek, Billy — The three-time first-team all-Big Ten running back wasn't recruited to play high school football because he had Osgood Slaughter disease (a knee ailment that affected teenagers) and didn't play seventh and eighth grade football.

The 5-foot-8 Marek carried the ball only once as a freshman at the UW, then put together three consecutive 1,200-yard seasons. In danger of falling shy of 1,000 yards in 1974 after missing nearly three full games with injuries, Marek rushed for 704 yards in the final three games, including 304 and five touchdowns in a 49-14 rout of Minnesota. His play earned him Sports Illustrated's national offensive back of the week honors.

Marek was at the center of an April Fool's Day joke played by Wisconsin State Journal columnist Tom Butler in 1975. Butler wrote a tongue-in-cheek piece about moving the Big Ten's leading rusher to the defensive secondary for his senior season. The article ended with the phrase, "April Fools!" Unfortunately, wire service reporters did not make it to the last line, and called head coach John Jardine's house for confirmation. The AP eventually moved the story on its national wire for about a half-an-hour before the hoax was discovered.



Billy Marek rushed for 206, 230 and 304 yards in consecutive games against Iowa, Northwestern and Minnesota in 1974.

Motion "W" — When Barry Alvarez came to Madison, he decided that the helmet logo needed to be updated to signal a new era in Wisconsin football. He entertained 15-20 different designs in 1990 before Rayovac artist Rick Suchanek developed the "Motion W," which included a tail at the back of the logo. Alvarez thought the tail was a bit much, but when it was removed, decided to go with it. The University bought the rights to the design, and the logo has been adopted by the other sports in the department.

Mott, Jim — There is no greater authority on UW athletics than former Sports Information Director Jim Mott. His association with the sports information office began as a student assistant in 1953. He was named assistant SID a year later and was appointed director in 1966, a position he held until his retirement in 1990.

He is a past president of the College Sports Information Directors of America and is a member of that organization's Hall of Fame.

Mott's memory is legendary among athletic department staffers. When the question of previous home night games was being tossed around the sports information office in anticipation of this year's contest against Colorado, Mott noted that the UW had two previous home night games in its history. Obvious was the 1986 battle with Michigan. Mott also recalled the 1896 loss to the Carlisle Indians, including the date of the game, final score, and the fact that it was played in Chicago Coliseum.

O'Dea, Pat — One of several Wisconsin greats from the pre-modern era of college football is kicker Pat O'Dea. The Australian-born O'Dea came to Madison in 1896 to join his brother Andy, who was crew coach and football trainer. Known as the "Kangaroo Kicker," O'Dea brought a different style to the American game of football. He learned to play the Australian game where all punting and drop-kicking was done on the run. O'Dea drop-kicked a legendary 62-yard field goal vs. Northwestern during a heavy blizzard. He was also credited with a 110-yard punt (fields were 110 yards long) against Minnesota in 1897.

After his playing days, he coached at Notre Dame and Missouri before moving to San Francisco. O'Dea, who essentially had disappeared, was thought to have joined an Australian contingent which travelled through the country. Press releases surmised that he "probably lies beneath an unmarked grave in France."

The truth was, he had moved to California under the assumed name of Charles J. Mitchell, to escape the pressure of being a star ex-athlete. "Probably, I was wrong," he said in an interview with San Francisco sportswriter Bill Leiser after the 17-year exile. "I wanted to get away from my past. As Pat O'Dea, I seemed very much just an ex-football player. I was very happy as Charles Mitchell for awhile."

"On, Wisconsin" — The tune was originally composed in 1909 by Chicago's William Purdy, and the words were written by Carl Beck. Purdy and Beck had been fraternity brothers at Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.) and were roommates in Chicago. Purdy was going to submit the song for a $100 prize the University of Minnesota was offering for a new football song. When Beck heard the music, he offered to write words and suggested that Purdy offer it to Wisconsin, where Beck had once studied. The song was an instant hit on campus and spread throughout the world. It was especially popular with military bands.

The Slab of Bacon trophy was a precursor to the Paul Bunyan Axe.

Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs. "On, Wisconsin" was sung for the first time at the 1909 homecoming game vs. Minnesota.

The music was adapted by current Band Director Michael Leckrone in 1969. The original version had been played virtually unchanged since its inception. "I got a lot of flak for that," Leckrone said. "The old version was one you had to wait on. I wanted to generate immediate crowd reaction, so I stepped it up a bit."

Paul Bunyan Axe — The most-played rivalry in Division I football continues this fall when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet in Minneapolis. The UW-UM series is the nation's oldest and has been played continuously for 88 years. The neighboring schools have met on the gridiron in 104 of the last 105 seasons (the exception was 1906). The game has alternated sites between the university campuses since 1946. Much prestige was always associated with the game, and the significance was emphasized with its place on the schedule. Between 1933 and 1982, the Wisconsin-Minnesota game was always the final regular-season contest each season.

The series took an added twist in 1948 when more than state bragging rights were on the line. After a 16-0 setback that season, the Wisconsin lettermen's group, the National "W" Club, presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by Paul Bunyan. He was the mythical giant of Midwestern lumber camps. Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with scores inscribed on the handle, for display on its campus.

Penn State anniversary — When Wisconsin plays Penn State this year, it will be the first time the teams have played as conference foes. It will also resume a series which has not been played since 1970 and marks the 25th anniversary of one of Wisconsin's biggest upsets, a 29-16 win over the Nittany Lions.

Penn State entered the 1970 season coming off back-to-back 11-0 seasons. The team was captained by Jack Ham and boasted Franco Harris and Lydell Mitchell in the backfield. They were, however, coming off their first loss in 32 games, a 41-13 defeat at Colorado. Despite rushing for minus-16 yards, Wisconsin posted a win behind three Neil Graff touchdown passes, two of which were bombs of 68 and 52 yards to Larry Mialik.

Richter debut — When Wisconsin plays Stanford on Sept. 16, it will mark a special anniversary for Director of Athletics Pat Richter. Nearly 35 years to the day of this year's game, Richter debuted in a Badger football uniform against the Cardinal in Palo Alto. In that game, Richter caught seven balls, which broke a 34-year-old school record.

Shalala, Donna — Secretary of Health and Human Services Donna Shalala is credited with being a major force in the Wisconsin football program's recent success. When Shalala became UW chancellor in 1988, it was the first time she led a school with a football program. Following the 1989 season, she hired Director of Athletics Pat Richter, who subsequently picked Barry Alvarez as head football coach. Her enthusiasm and support of the program won over many fans. Some boosters even sent roses to her Washington office when the Badgers earned a berth to the 1994 Rose Bowl. She attended the Badgers' Rose and Hall of Fame Bowl games the last two seasons.

Slab of Bacon — The Slab of Bacon trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series. Apparently, the trophy was presented to the winning school by a sororiety from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was discovered in a storage room at the UW Department of Athletics in 1994. It is currently housed in the football office at Wisconsin. "We took home the bacon," Coach Barry Alvarez said, "and kept it."

"Varsity" — The traditional arm-waving at the end of the song, "Varsity," was the 1934 brainstorm of band leader Ray Dvorak. He saw Pennsylvania students wave their caps after losing a game. Dvorak later instructed Wisconsin students to salute UW President Glenn Frank after each game.

BIG TEN SINCE 1896 CENTENNIAL

BIG TEN CENTENNIAL

During the 1995-96 season, the Big Ten will celebrate its centennial. With a tradition that includes 11 national championships, 11 Heisman Trophy winners, 263 consensus all-Americans and 73 academic all-Americans, Conference football fans have truly witnessed great teams and players throughout its history.

For 34 of the last 40 years, Big Ten football attendance has led the nation. For the second consecutive season, the Big Ten set an NCAA record as 4.4 million fans attended Conference games. And what have these people come to see? Simply some of the finest performances by some of the greatest collegiate athletes in America.

The celebration of 100 years of Big Ten excellence will have a presence throughout the coming year as all league schools will hold special events on their campuses.

The Centennial celebration started with a Gala Reception at the Palmer House in Chicago, the actual birthplace of the league.

Former conference student-athletes who made a difference in the world through their professional careers were presented with Centennial Medal of Honor Awards.

THERE WILL BE SEVERAL NEW ACTORS on stage this fall when the Wisconsin football team lifts the curtain on its 1995 season. That's because Coach Barry Alvarez had 27 seniors depart after guiding the Badgers to consecutive January bowl game victories the last two years.

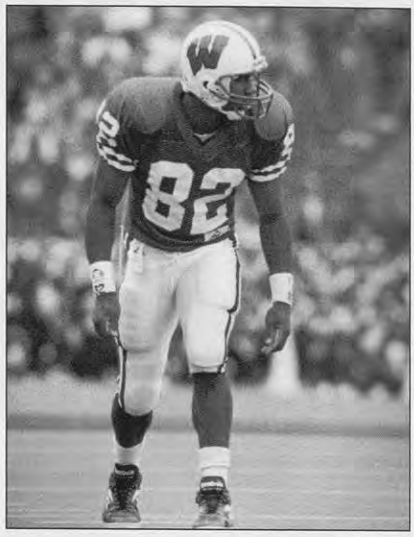
The cast that Alvarez must replace includes six starters from an offense which produced back-to-back seasons of more than 5,000 total yards. Defensive losses include the entire secondary and two members of the front seven. Two kicking specialists have also graduated.

All told, the Badger offense must identify replacements for the second (Brent Moss) and third-leading (Terrell Fletcher) rushers in school history, three offensive linemen who earned first-team all-conference honors (including consensus all-America center Cory Raymer), four-year starting TE Michael Roan and FL J.C. Dawkins. Wisconsin also suffered an unexpected loss when fifth-year senior SE Lee DeRamus, who missed the '94 campaign with a broken leg, opted for the NFL draft with a year of eligibility remaining.

The defensive troops, which placed third in the Big Ten in total and scoring defense, lost DT Mike Thompson. The school's career leader in all minus-yardage categories started every game in his four-year career. In the secondary, the Badgers must replace all-time interception leader Jeff Messenger, cornerbacks Kenny Gales and Donny Brady and veteran safeties Jamel Brown and Melvin Tucker.

It's not time to panic, however, according to Alvarez.

"When a program starts to mature," Alvarez said, "the back-ups and redshirts need to step up and replace departed players."



Wide receiver Tony Simmons led the club with 588 yards receiving in '94.

Bevell Keys Offensive Fortunes as Badgers Retool Running Game

Quarterback: Much of Alvarez' optimism on offense is because he can look to three-year starting quarterback Darrell Bevell for leadership. The school's record holder in every significant passing category, Bevell has directed the Badgers to 21 wins in his career.

One of the nation's most accurate and efficient passers, Bevell could join only four other players in Big Ten history to pass for more than 7,000 career yards and complete at least 60 percent of his throws. Bevell's back-up is redshirt freshman Mike Samuel. True rookies Mark Zanders and Marcus White will get shots at the reserve role in fall camp.

Running backs: The Badgers have parlayed one of the NCAA's top ground games the last two seasons into a 16-3-2 record when outrushing opponents. Certainly the loss of Fletcher and Moss leaves a huge hole. Carl McCullough and Royce Roberson are the heir apparents to the two-man rotation that was so successful in 1993-94. Roberson (303 yards in '94) and McCullough (162 yards in '93), both former prep all-Americans, are sophomores. Redshirt freshman Aaron Stecker was the surprise of spring camp and rushed for more than 100 yards in the spring game. He is a stop-and-start runner who will help in the return game, too.

Senior fullback Ron Johnson, who led the team with 33 catches, will likely miss the season after knee surgery. Sophomore Branden Cantrell and freshman Cecil Martin impressed in the spring.

Offensive line: With the exit of Cory Raymer, Joe Rudolph and Mike Verstegen, the Badgers lost the majority of one of the best lines in league history.

Among the returnees, tackle Jerry Wunsch is an honors candidate. The 315-pound junior started all 12 games at RT for the Hall of Fame Bowl champs. Junior Cayetano Castro, a 310 pounder, could earn the starting assignment at LT. John Rohde and former NG Todd Halbur are in reserve.

Guards Steve Stark, one of five team captains, and Jamie Vanderveldt split time at RG last fall. Stark has started 17 times in the last two seasons and is the most experienced lineman. Vanderveldt, a five-game starter last fall, worked at both guard and tackle in the spring and will be in the lineup. Juniors James Darby, coming off injury, and Derek Engler, a spring surprise, are in the mix.

Getting Raymer's turns at center will be former defensive lineman Al Gay. The top challenger is Mike Rader, a quick and capable blocker. Neither of the former Wisconsin all-staters has much experience.

The Offense

Strengths — Darrell Bevell is in his fourth season as the starter. A tradition of offensive excellence the past two seasons has been established. Tony Simmons had more receiving yards last fall than any freshman in Big Ten history.

Concerns — The Badgers graduated the entire left side of the offensive line. Tailbacks Terrell Fletcher and Brent Moss, who combined for 6,842 yards rushing in their careers, are gone.

New faces — Carl McCullough, Royce Roberson and Aaron Stecker are the tailback prospects. Three-year reserve Matt Nyquist gets full-time duty at tight end. Al Gay steps in for Cory Raymer, a consensus all-American, at center.

The Defense

Strengths — LBs Pete Monty and Eric Unverzagt, the team's top two tacklers. DE Tarek Saleh and DT Jason Maniecki earned all-Big Ten praise in their first years as starters.

Concerns — Finding replacements for four-year fixture Mike Thompson and an all-senior secondary.

New faces — LaMar Campbell and Jason Suttle, cornerbacks with one career start each, are the "veterans" in the backfield. Kevin Huntley, who played at WR as a true freshman, gets a shot at FS and redshirt rookie Leonard Taylor is the SS.

Wide receivers: The top returnee is sophomore Tony Simmons, a conference placewinner in the 100 meters. He had more receiving yardage (588 yards) and TDs (eight) than any rookie receiver in Big Ten history. Sophomore Reggie Torian, a multiple time track all-American, offers additional "big-play" ability.

Michael London is back for a fifth year and will be counted upon for leadership. Donald Hayes, a native of Madison, is an intriguing receiver prospect with his 6-5 height.

Tight end: Senior Matt Nyquist, an academic all-America candidate, inherits the starting role. Nyquist is an excellent receiver and has four TDs among his 22 career receptions. Freshman Ryan Sondrup and junior Kevin Lyles are the understudies.

Linebackers Provide Leadership for Youthful Defensive Troops

Linebackers: The strength of the defensive troops is at linebacker with Pete Monty (131 tackles) and his partner Eric Unverzagt (115). Each had a team-leading seven passes broken up and combined for 18 tackles for loss. Monty is the Big Ten's top returning tackler, and Unverzagt was a second-team all-league pick. Each will serve as captain this fall.

In the Badgers' slightly altered defensive scheme, former ILBs Pete Diatelevi and David Lysek, who combined for 61 tackles in reserve roles, line up on the outside. Daryl Carter, a hard-hitting strong safety, caught the staff's attention in his spring trial at OLB.

Defensive tackle: The Badgers have eliminated the noseguard position and thus slide senior Jason Maniecki to tackle. The physical Maniecki was an all-league pick on the field, where he had 13 tackles for loss, and in the classroom. Junior Rod Spiller is listed No. 1 at the tackle opposite Maniecki. Senior Haywood Simmons, junior Neil Miklusak and freshman Brandon Williams will challenge for time, too.

Defensive end: Junior Tarek Saleh led the team in sacks a year ago when he earned all-league laurels. Junior Bryan Jurewicz, who established himself at LT and started the final eight games, is now a rush end. Azree Commander and Rob Lurtsema, coming off a redshirt season, are the top reserves behind Saleh and Jurewicz. Chad Yocum, a senior who has played in only three games the last two seasons, is trying to recover from a back injury.

Secondary: All four starters and the top reserve from last season have exhausted their eligibility. LaMar Campbell and Jason Suttle, with one career start each, will line up at cornerback. Damon Glenn and Cyrill Weems are the reserves.

Kevin Huntley, a contributing receiver as a true freshman, stepped into the starter's role at free safety. A talented athlete, Huntley played six different positions as a prep. Redshirt freshman Leonard Taylor is first team at strong safety with steady walk-on Bob Adamov challenging.

Hall Handles All Placements

Kicking: John Hall finally assumes all the placekicking duties this season. Hall earned all-league mention after booting 7-10 field goals and starring on kickoffs. Half of Hall's kickoffs were unreturned. JC transfer Brian Alexander will join the squad in August with hopes of replacing four-year punter Sam Veit.

Colorado and Penn State on TV

Colorado, which finished the year No. 3 nationally, is the season opener in Madison. ABC will show that game in prime-time, the Badgers' first home night game since 1986. Penn State makes its first appearance as a league foe on Wisconsin's slate. The Badgers travel to PSU on Sept. 30 for an ESPN encounter. A trip to Stanford and a home game with SMU round out the non-conference slate.

Wisconsin will host Big Ten games against Ohio State, Michigan State, Illinois and Iowa. The Hawkeyes return to the schedule after a two-year absence.

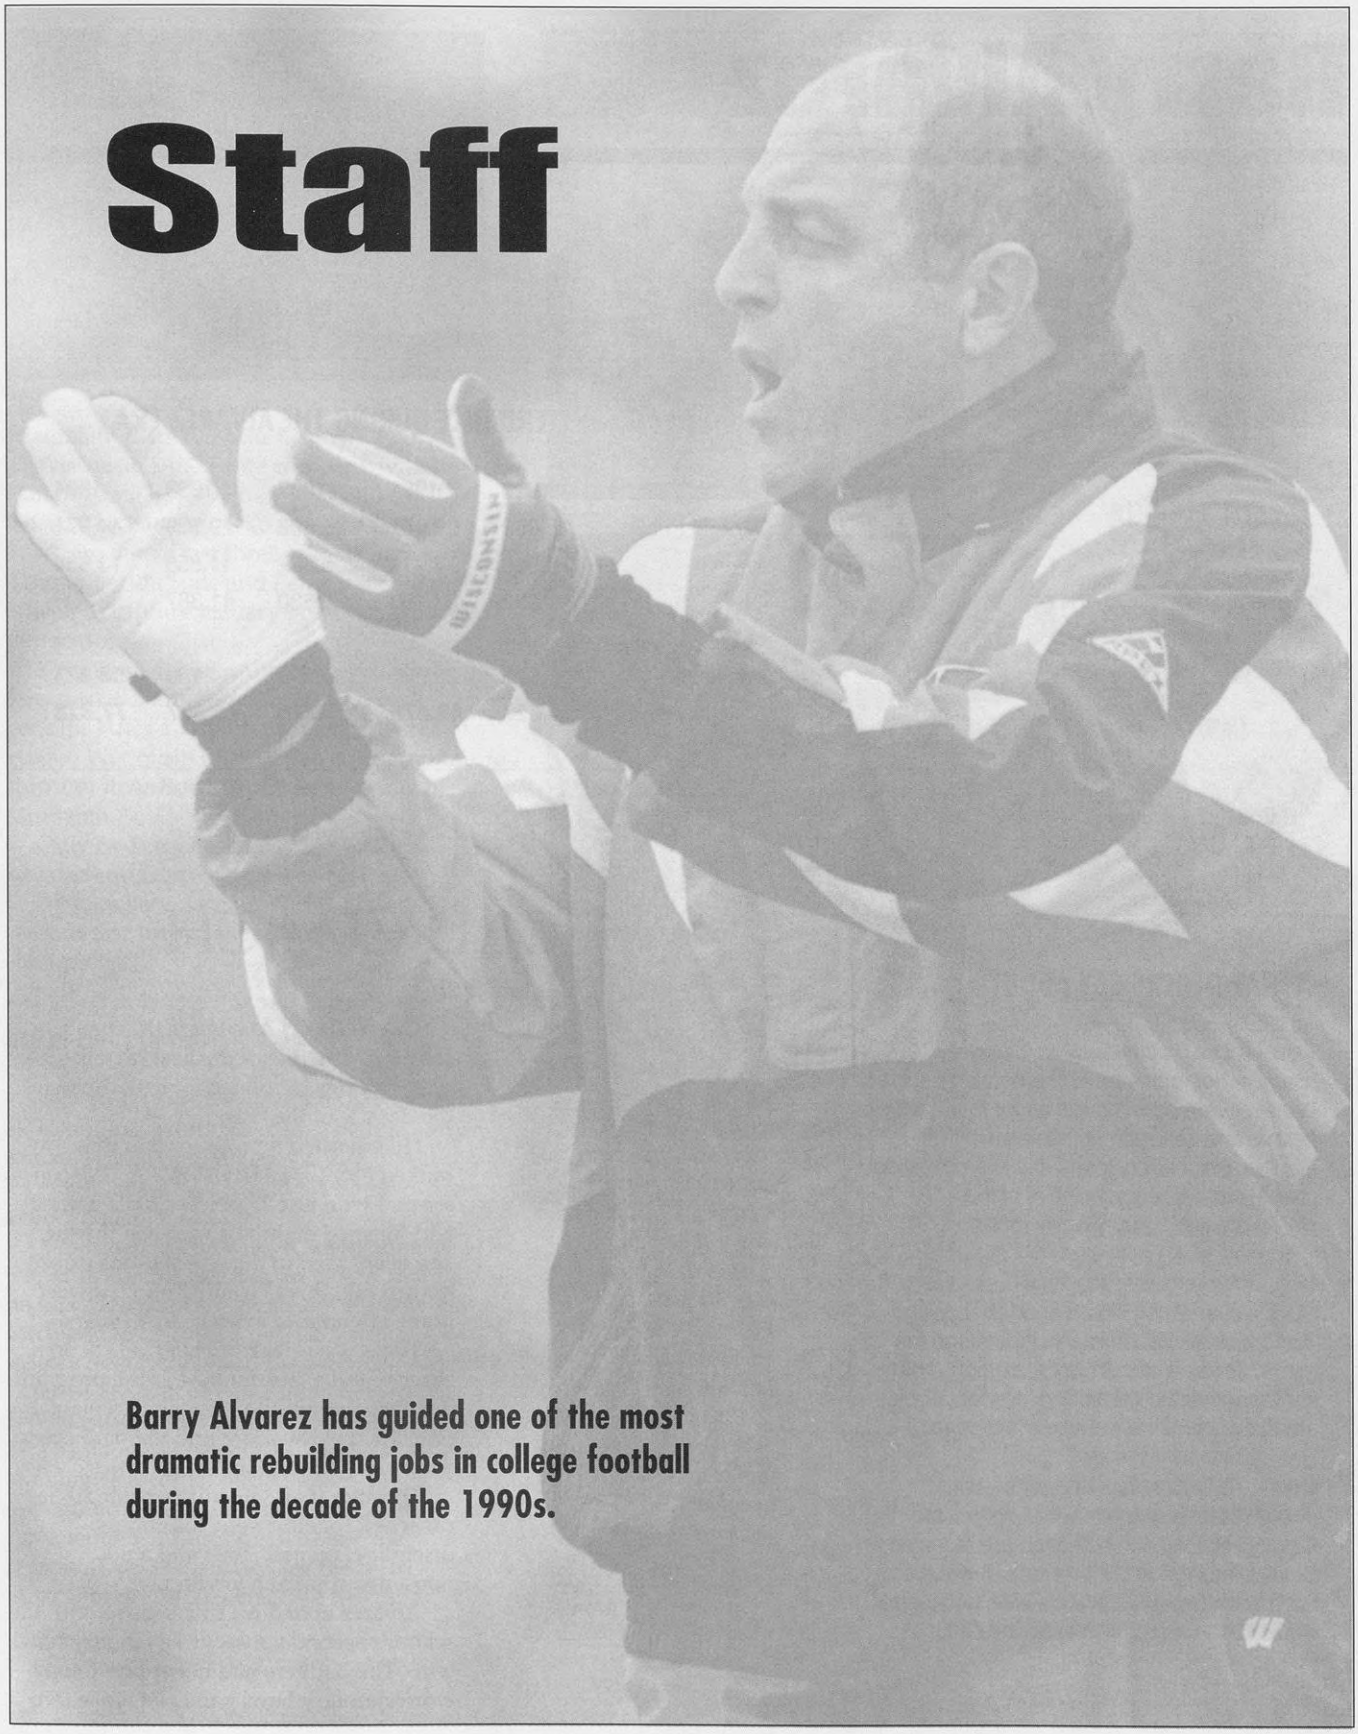
Staff



Barry Alvarez has guided one of the most dramatic rebuilding jobs in college football during the decade of the 1990s.

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT ALVAREZ

LOU HOLTZ, NOTRE DAME COACH
"Barry is one of the more memorable people I've ever worked with. His ability to relate to people and generate enthusiasm are qualities you cannot learn. He is an excellent coach, a great representative of the University and a good family man."

BOB DEVANEY, FORMER NEBRASKA COACH
"As a player, Barry was a good linebacker. You could tell that he really understood the game. Barry is also a people person. His knowledge of the game and love for people are the reasons he's an excellent coach."

CINDY ALVAREZ, THE COACH'S WIFE
(Barry was a policeman when he first married Cindy. The lofty goals of each are reflected in Cindy's feelings about that job). "I wouldn't have been happy as a cop's wife, because I would have wanted him to be the Chief of Police."

HEAD COACH

Barry Alvarez is the only coach in Wisconsin history to have led the Badgers to consecutive January bowl game victories. Wisconsin is one of just three schools in the nation (Florida State and Penn State are the others) to win January bowl games in 1994 and 1995. Wisconsin's two-year win total of 17 (vs. 5 losses and 2 ties) is the most at the school since 1900-01.

COACH BARRY ALVAREZ is the man credited with one of the best rags-to-riches stories in college football during the decade of the '90s.

He inherited a program that was ranked No. 107 in Division I-A. Wisconsin had won just 25 percent of its games and finished eighth or worse in the Big Ten every year in the five seasons prior to his arrival. It was coming off its lowest home attendance average in 45 years.

There was a lack of belief, a lack of success and a lack interest in the program. Alvarez entered the scene with a plan, unbridled enthusiasm and the patience to persevere through the tough times.

Through it all, the unflappable Alvarez preached togetherness, toughness, discipline, mental focus and a no-nonsense approach to winning.

Alvarez ended his fifth season with the school's second consecutive January bowl win. The Badgers had never previously won a January bowl game, let alone two straight, in their 106-year history.

Wisconsin joined elite company with its Hall of Fame Bowl victory over Duke last Jan. 2. The Badgers, who won the 1994 Rose Bowl, are one of just three schools in the nation (Florida State and Penn State are the others) to capture January bowl wins the last two seasons.

During his tenure, Alvarez reversed the fortunes of a program that had hit rock bottom. After a 1-10 first season, Alvarez guided Wisconsin to a Big Ten co-championship and Rose Bowl triumph in his fourth campaign.

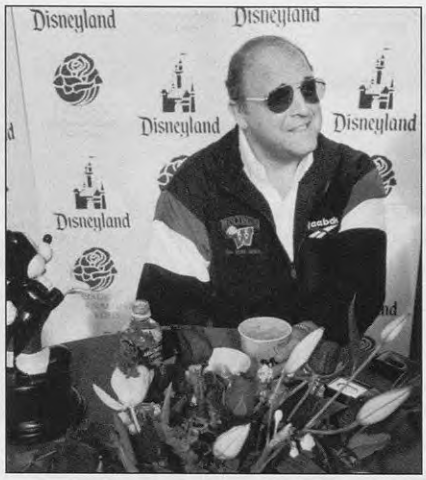
Only two coaches in Big Ten history — Alvarez and Ohio State's Wes Fesler (1947-49) — took last-place programs their rookie seasons and turned them into league champions.

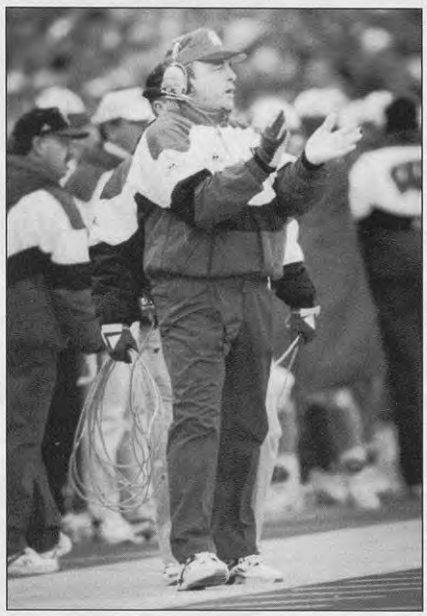
Hall of Fame Campaign

The '94 club had to deal with increased expectations, a difficult road schedule and an unusual number of injuries to key players. Through it all, Alvarez and his Badgers met every challenge head on.

Wisconsin, with its bowl aspirations in jeopardy at 3-3-1, regrouped to win four of its final five games. The school's first win at Michigan since 1962, a bowl-clinching victory over Illinois and the 34-20 win over Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl helped the UW to a 7-4-1 final slate.

The Badgers smashed all previous school attendance records, earned seven TV appearances and built momentum with a three-game winning streak to end the season. That skein is tied for the fifth-longest in the NCAA entering this year.





A Rosy Season

The 1993 Badgers will be remembered as the squad that established new standards. The winningest team in UW history ...

- was co-champ of the Big Ten and won its first Rose Bowl
- finished fifth (coaches) and sixth (media) in the final polls
- posted the NCAA's largest attendance increase
- improved its record by 5.5 games from '92, the largest one-year gain in school history.

For those achievements, Alvarez was named national Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association, the Bobby Dodd Foundation, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and College Sports magazine.

Alvarez also became the first Wisconsin coach to earn the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year Award. He received 94 percent of the first-place votes.

Over the last two seasons, the Badgers have posted a 17-5-2 (.750) record. Wisconsin took 66 games (17-49) to win that many games prior to the 1993 season. That two-year win total is the best in consecutive seasons at the UW since 1900-01.

Besides the obvious on-field improvement, home crowds have increased by an incredible 85.3 percent since his arrival. The Badgers played before nine sellouts in the last two seasons after going 47 straight games without a full house at Camp Randall Stadium.

Success at Every Stop

ALVAREZ WAS APPOINTED the school's 27th football coach on Dec. 31, 1989, one day after his 42nd birthday. "My old coach (at Nebraska), Bob Devaney told me that I should set a goal for myself to take a head coaching job by the time I was 42," Alvarez said. "I missed it by one day."

For three seasons, Alvarez was an assistant for Lou Holtz at Notre Dame. He served as linebackers coach in 1987, was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1988 and moved up to assistant head coach in 1989.

Notre Dame finished 17th, first and second in the final Associated Press poll the three seasons Alvarez was there. The Fighting Irish won an incredible 23 consecutive games in 1988 and 1989.

The 1988 Fighting Irish team won a national championship and posted a perfect 12-0 record. As coordinator, Alvarez' defense ranked third nationally in scoring, 10th against the run and 13th in total defense.

Notre Dame was 12-1 in 1989 and the nation's No. 1 team for 11 straight weeks. Alvarez' defense keyed a 21-6 Orange Bowl victory over top-ranked Colorado. The 1989 Notre Dame defenders were nationally ranked in every category.

Barry Alvarez is one of two coaches in Big Ten history to take a team from last place his first season to a conference championship.

Alvarez coached all-America linebackers in each of his three seasons in South Bend. Michael Stonebreaker was a consensus all-America pick in 1988. Ned Bolcar, Cedric Figaro and Wes Pritchett also made all-America squads under Alvarez.

As an Iowa assistant, he coached linebackers from 1979-86. The Hawkeyes went to postseason games the last six years, including Rose Bowls in 1982 and 1986. Alvarez helped the Hawkeyes turn a program that hadn't had a winning season in 17 years into a regular bowl game participant.

Alvarez coached five first-team all-Big Ten linebackers at Iowa. His prize pupil was Larry Station, a two-time consensus all-American. An academic all-American as well, Station is the Hawkeyes' career tackle leader.

Barry got his coaching start in 1971 as an assistant at Lincoln (Neb.) Northeast High School. The squad won a state title in 1972, his second year there.

His first head coaching position was at Lexington (Neb.) High School from 1974-75. He was 16-4 and the Nebraska prep Coach of the Year in 1974. Alvarez then coached at Mason City (Iowa) High School from 1976-78, compiling a 21-9 mark. Included was a 4A state title in 1978, when he was conference and district Coach of the Year.

Playing Days & Personal Life

A THREE-YEAR LETTERMAN at Nebraska, Alvarez earned his bachelor of science degree in 1969. He added a master of arts degree from Nebraska in 1971. As a Nebraska linebacker, he played in the Orange and Sugar Bowls, as well as the Senior and Blue-Gray all-star games.

Barry and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Dawn (Mrs. Brad Ferguson) and Stacy, and a son, Chad. Alvarez was born Dec. 30, 1946, in Burgettstown, Pa.

BARRY ALVAREZ ON THE ISSUES

On the task he faced in 1990
"It wasn't just building a program, but we had to get the entire athletic department on solid ground. It was tying a whole state together and rallying people around the state university."

Academics at Wisconsin
"People told me not to take this job because of the strong academics and the fact that you couldn't get all the kids in school. But I felt that you could use that as a positive. You have to go out and get kids who want to go to school. The degree has to be important to them. There are plenty of good football players who are good students."

Academic priorities
"I was fortunate to have coaches looking after me and emphasizing academics. I feel it's our duty (as coaches) to make sure we do everything we can to support our athletes and make sure we give them the help they need to come out of here with a degree."

Relations with people
"I'm a people person. I like to be around people. I'm never afraid to have friends on the staff. When I became a head coach, people told me I was going to become lonely. I didn't like that and said it wasn't going to happen to me."

A players' coach
"We, as a staff, sincerely care about the kids. Treat them like your own kids. If they do wrong, punish them. But try to offer guidance. I am very honest and approachable and don't take myself too seriously. My door is always open. If kids know you care about them as people — not just as players — there's nothing you can ask of them that they will think is unfair."

Life outside of football
"You always try to teach your kids some things about life. We talk about dealing with adversity, overcoming the odds and being positive."

Coaching in the Rose Bowl
"I get chills and goose bumps thinking about it. The emotions that I felt on the sideline with the sun settling over the Rose Bowl was something I've never felt anywhere else. There's nothing that compares to it."

Midwestern ways
"I think there's a good chemistry between myself and the mindset of the people in Wisconsin. I go out and mingle with the fans, and I think people can identify with me. What you see is what you get with me."

Long-range goals
"I want to take a school that hadn't won before and build the program and sustain it like (former Nebraska Coach Bob) Devaney did. Then, when you retire, people say, 'He's the greatest coach who ever coached here.' I want to establish a consistent winner, not a peak-and-valley team. This is that program."

His type of player
"We've made a living on overachievers, kids who like to play football and are hard-nosed. That fits my personality. We are a blue-collar football team, and I am a blue-collar coach."

Climbing to the top
"There's no question it's more difficult to turn a program around than maintain it. Not many guys have the chance to answer that question because so few have actually gone from worst to first like our staff has."

Patience
"I knew we had to be patient when we came in here. When you take a job that's down, you have to make it a good job, and you can't do that overnight. All I wanted was to take one step at a time and try to get to the point where we could compete with Big Ten schools. I never wavered in my confidence, because I had watched our plan work at other schools. It was a matter of time."

Alvarez: Year-by-Year

1994: 7-4-1 (4-3-1 Big Ten)

Wisconsin won its second straight January bowl game by defeating Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. The regular season featured a win at Michigan for the first time since 1962, the first shutout in 114 games and a school-record 632-yard total offensive output vs. Indiana. Cory Raymer was a consensus all-American.

1993: 10-1-1 (6-1-1 Big Ten)

The winningest team in UW history was Big Ten co-champ, beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl and was ranked as high as fifth (coaches) in the final polls. UW had the NCAA's largest attendance increase, and its .875 winning percentage was the best by a Big Ten team since '79. The 5.5-game improvement in the win column was the best in school history.

1992: 5-6 (3-5 Big Ten)

The UW was 5-6 again and climbed in the Big Ten standings for the third season in a row. The Badgers upset 12th-ranked Ohio State, the first win over a nationally rated foe in eight years. Wisconsin received votes in the polls and ended the year one win short of a bowl bid.

1991: 5-6 (2-6 Big Ten)

Wisconsin improved its win total by four games, the fourth-largest improvement in the NCAA. Troy Vincent was an all-American. A victory at Minnesota broke a 23-game road losing streak.

1990: 1-10 (0-8 Big Ten)

UW was within striking distance entering the fourth quarter in 10 games, and it had the third-best attendance gain in the NCAA.

BOWL EXPERIENCE
East Carolina — 1991 Peach Bowl

MIKE CASSITY, who has served as a defensive coordinator at five schools previously, begins his first campaign as secondary coach at Wisconsin. The first-year Badger coach has the task of rebuilding a backfield that lost all four starters from the Hall of Fame Bowl championship squad.

Cassity spent the 1994 season as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Cincinnati, where the Bearcats' pass defense surrendered just 149.2 yards per game. The Badgers defeated Cincinnati 38-7 last fall in Camp Randall Stadium.

Before joining the Bearcats' staff, Cassity served as defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, East Carolina, Northeast Louisiana and Western Kentucky.

Prior to his stretch of coordinator positions, he was a member of coaching staffs at Morehead State (1982) and Kentucky (1979-81). Cassity was a graduate assistant for six months at Kentucky, his alma mater, before joining Fran Curci's full-time staff for two-and-a-half years as secondary coach.

Cassity then served as defensive coordinator at Western Kentucky (1983-88) and NE Louisiana (1989). Two of his teams ranked in the Top 10 nationally for total defense at WKU.

He eventually moved to East Carolina where he was defensive coordinator in 1990-91 for Coach Bill Lewis. The '91 Pirates posted the winningest season in school history (11-1), won the Peach Bowl and had the nation's fourth-best turnover margin. Cassity was a member of the National Coaching Staff of the Year as selected by one publication. Among his players at East Carolina were Dallas Cowboys Robert Jones and Chris Hall. Jones is an NFL All-Pro. Cassity also worked with safety Greg Grandison, a Kodak first-team all-American.

Cassity followed Lewis to Georgia Tech, where he served as defensive coordinator (1992-93). His '93 defense registered a shutout over Maryland and surrendered just three points to Furman. The top player on his unit was tackle Coleman Rudolph, a second-round draft pick by the New York Jets.

Cassity's first post was at Tilghman High School in Paducah, Ky. (1976-79).

The 42-year-old Cassity was a five-time letterman at Kentucky, where he competed in football and wrestling. Cassity earned the Wildcats' 110 Percent award and was SEC wrestling runner-up in the 190-pound class as a senior. He was an all-state football player and two-time state wrestling champion as a prep.

BOWL EXPERIENCE
Wisconsin — 1995 Hall of Fame Bowl; 1994 Rose Bowl; Illinois — 1984 Rose Bowl; 1982 Liberty Bowl

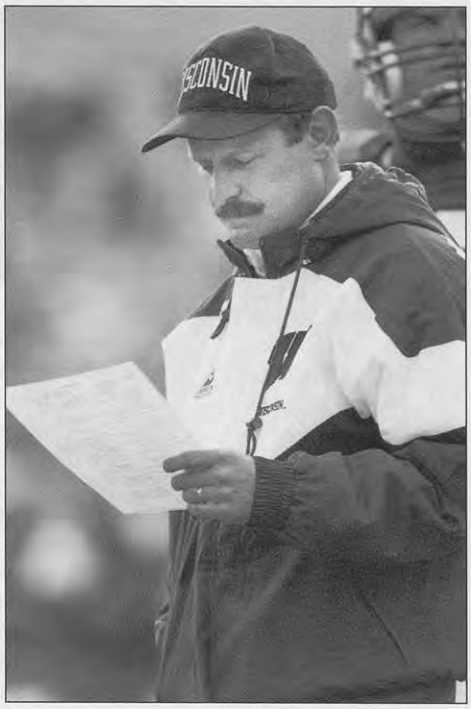
WISCONSIN'S HIGHLY RESPECTED offense, which has produced the top two total offense figures in school history the past two seasons, is directed by fourth-year coordinator Brad Childress. The 39-year-old Childress came to Wisconsin in 1991 as running backs coach and was promoted to offensive coordinator in charge of quarterbacks his second season.

Childress' 1993 offense set a Wisconsin record by averaging 455.2 yards per game, then the fourth-highest mark in Big Ten history. That club ranked first in the league in rushing (eighth nationally) and total offense (12th), second in scoring (25th) and fourth in passing. The Badgers also established Big Ten records for completion percentage in a game (.944) and season (.675).

The '94 Badgers averaged 29.8 points per game, the fourth-best mark in school history, and gained more than 5,000 total yards for the second year in a row. Wisconsin set a modern-era school record with a 632-yard total offensive output against Indiana. The Badgers ended the season ranked ninth in rushing and 18th in total offense according to the NCAA.

Among his record-breaking pupils is the UW's career passing leader, Darrell Bevell. Childress developed the former 172-pound Mormon missionary into the nation's No. 3 passer (1993) and the winningest QB in UW history. Bevell owns nearly every passing and total offense record at the school entering his senior year and was a first-team all-Big Ten pick as a sophomore.

Besides Bevell, the veteran Big Ten mentor has coached the No. 2 (Brent Moss) and No. 3 (Terrell Fletcher) career rushers and No. 2 (Lee DeRamus) receiver at Wisconsin.



Prior to joining the UW staff, Childress was wide receivers coach at Utah (1989) and offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona (1986-89). His quarterback at NAU, Greg Wyatt, passed for more than 10,000 yards and set more than 60 school and NCAA records. Wyatt completed 962 passes, the second-most in college history at the time.

Childress coached quarterbacks and helped with the computerized scouting department of the Indianapolis Colts in 1985 after a seven-year stint (1978-84) at Illinois. He was a full-time assistant with the running backs and wide receivers his final five campaigns after two years as a graduate assistant. He coached the Illini's David Williams, who caught a Big Ten-record 101 passes in 1984.

BOWL EXPERIENCE

ONE OF THE ORIGINAL MEMBERS of Coach Barry Alvarez' staff at Wisconsin, Kevin Cosgrove begins his first full season as defensive coordinator. Cosgrove, who continues to coach inside linebackers, assumed coordinator duties Dec. 4 and handled those responsibilities in the Hall of Fame Bowl victory over Duke.

Cosgrove, entering his sixth season in Madison, has coached the Badgers' leading tackler in four of his previous five years. His '94 starting duo of Pete Monty and Eric Unverzagt collected 131 and 115 tackles, respectively, last fall to rank third and 11th in the Big Ten.

A pair of Cosgrove starters, Yusef Burgess and Unverzagt, were the top tacklers on the 1994 Rose Bowl championship squad. Burgess was a second-team all-Big Ten honoree after leading the league in fumbles forced. That '93 defense ranked 15th in the nation for scoring (16.3) with the best mark at the UW in 31 years.

The linebackers on the 1992 club, Aaron Norvell and Gary Casper, finished third and fifth, respectively, in Big Ten tackles. Casper left Wisconsin as the career tackle leader (447).

Cosgrove, who has coached collegiate defenses since 1980, was inside linebackers coach for Earle Bruce at Colorado State in 1989. He was defensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri State for one season (1988) and led Illinois' linebackers from 1980-87. He coached in three bowl games with the Illini, including the 1984 Rose Bowl.

Among his most noted players were Illinois all-league linebackers Jack Squirek, Mike Weingrad, Mark Tagart and Gabe de la Garza. Squirek was a second-round NFL draft pick by the Raiders.

One of the midwest's top recruiters, he signed Jeff George, Moe Gardner and Darrick Brownlow at Illinois. George was the NFL's No. 1 draft pick in 1990, Gardner was a two-time consensus all-American and Brownlow was Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. His Wisconsin recruits include Terrell Fletcher, Lamark Shackerford and Monty. Fletcher is the school's career leader in all-purpose yardage, Shackerford was a two-time consensus all-Big Ten choice and Monty is the Big Ten's top returning tackler.

JAY HAYES begins his first full season as an assistant coach at Wisconsin. He will be in charge of the outside linebackers, strong safeties and special teams. Hayes, who was reunited with Coach Barry Alvarez last December, coached Badger outside linebackers in the 1995 Hall of Fame Bowl win over Duke.

Hayes worked previously with Alvarez while both were at Notre Dame. Most recently, Hayes was outside linebackers and special teams coach at California.

He was hired as the Golden Bears' outside linebackers coach in 1992. In his second season at Berkeley, California posted a 9-4 record and defeated Iowa in the Alamo Bowl. He was given additional responsibilities with the special teams at Cal in 1994.

As a four-year member of the Fighting Irish coaching staff, Hayes helped ND to a 41-7 record and New Year's Day bowls each season. Hayes joined the Notre Dame staff as a graduate assistant in 1988, the year ND captured the national championship. He received a promotion to full-time coaching duties with the OLBs and special teams the following three seasons (1989-91).

Notre Dame earned berths in the Fiesta (1988), Orange (1989-90) and Sugar (1991) Bowls during his stay. Among the players he coached at Notre Dame were pro draft picks Andre Jones (Detroit), Devon McDonald (Indianapolis), Scott Kowalkowski (Philadelphia) and Karmeelyia McGill (Cincinnati).

A defensive lineman at Idaho, Hayes was a two-time (1980-81) first-team all-conference selection. He was the Vandals' captain as a senior. Hayes received his B.S. degree in history from Idaho in 1984.

After graduation, Hayes played professionally for the Detroit Lions and Washington Redskins (1982-83) prior to stints with the Michigan Panthers and Memphis Showboats of the USFL (1984-86).

The 34-year-old Hayes is the older brother of NFL veteran Jonathan Hayes, who was recruited by Alvarez at Iowa. Jonathan Hayes was a TE with the Kansas City Chiefs for 10 years before joining the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1994.

Jay and his wife, Suzanne, have a son (Jesse) and a daughter (Jazmin).

BOWL EXPERIENCE

ONE OF THE COACHES RESPONSIBLE for the resurgence of the Wisconsin rushing game is fourth-year Badger assistant Jim Hueber. Beginning this fall, Hueber will coach the Badgers' offensive line after three seasons in charge of the running backs.

The Wisconsin rushing offense finished eighth (with a school-record 250.8-yard average) and ninth nationally the last two seasons and gained nearly 6,000 yards during that time. The Badgers finished first (in 1993) and second (1994) in Big Ten rushing and had six games of at least 300 yards rushing. Wisconsin has outgained 21 of its last 24 foes on the ground. Overall, the Badger rushing attack has improved its output by almost 150 yards from 1991, the year before Hueber's arrival.

Among the players he's worked with at Wisconsin are Brent Moss and Terrell Fletcher, the school's No. 2 and No. 3 career rushers. Each gained better than 3,400 yards. Moss (1,637 yards in 1993) and Fletcher (1,476 in 1994) have the top two season figures in UW history.

The Moss-Fletcher duo combined for 2,633 yards in the Rose Bowl championship season, the eighth-highest total for a backfield tandem in NCAA history. The Wisconsin pair combined for the second-most yardage in college history for the same tandem in consecutive years. Only SMU's Eric Dickerson and Craig James gained more yardage in back-to-back campaigns.

With Hueber's assistance, Fletcher became the Badgers' career all-purpose yardage leader, was MVP of the Hall of Fame Bowl and was chosen in the second round of the NFL draft by San Diego. As a junior, Moss was Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP. Mark Montgomery, a former Hueber fullback, was a '94 draft pick by the Eagles.

Hueber came to Wisconsin after an eight-year stint at Minnesota, where he was assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and an assistant coach with the offensive line and running backs. Eight of his Golden Gopher linemen were drafted by the NFL. Minnesota earned two bowl trips during his tenure.

Hueber's lengthy resume before Minnesota includes offensive coaching positions at Memphis State (1983), Temple (1981-82), Wichita State (1979-80), Dodge City Community College (1975-78) and Cincinnati (1974). He was recruiting coordinator at Temple, Wichita State and Dodge City Community College.

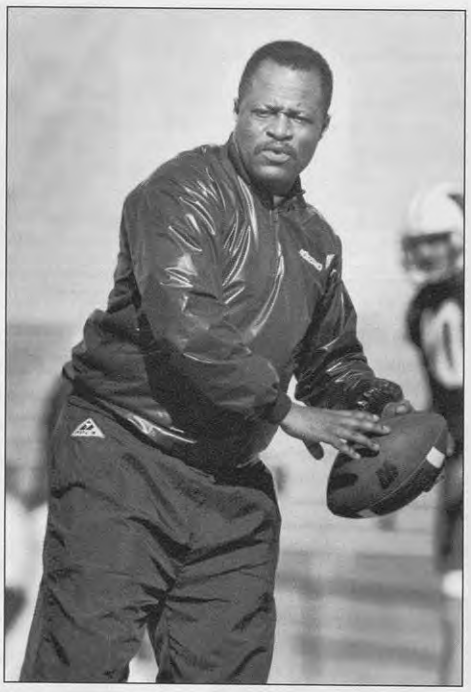
HENRY MASON, most recently the wide receivers coach at Western Michigan, will handle the same chores at the University of Wisconsin.

The 39-year-old Mason was wide receivers coach for the Broncos for four seasons (1991-94) while WMU posted a 27-15-2 mark. Mason also worked with the kick returners. Western Michigan led the Mid-American Conference in passing three of his four seasons. Three of Mason's former players earned professional football contracts. The Broncos had more than 2,700 yards passing his final season on the way to a 7-4 record. Three of his receivers had at least 40 receptions, including team leader Andre Wallace, who caught 68 passes for 758 yards as a senior in 1994.

Prior to joining the staff at Western Michigan, Mason was head coach at Smith-Cotton High School in Sedalia, Mo., for six years. Mason's mark at Smith-Cotton was 31-31, and his 1988 club became the first team at the school in 13 years to post a winning record. That squad earned a playoff appearance. Seven of his prepsters played collegiately. Mason was offensive coordinator at Smith-Cotton for three seasons (1982-84) before receiving the head coaching position.

Mason started his college career as an assistant at Baker University (1981) in Baldwin, Kan. He was responsible for wide receivers and quarterbacks on a 7-3 club. That team finished third in the Heart of American Conference for passing.



His initial coaching position was as an assistant at Lexington (Mo.) High School. Mason worked with running backs and defensive backs on clubs that posted a 21-0-1 record and won one state championship.

The Marshall, Mo., native is a 1979 graduate of Central Missouri State. Mason was a second-team UPI all-American in football in 1976 and an honorable mention selection in 1978. He was also a UPI second-team baseball all-American and three-time first-team all-league choice. Mason was drafted by the Baltimore Colts, where he played one season (1978). He also played one year (1979) of football with St. Louis.

His wife's name is Debbie.

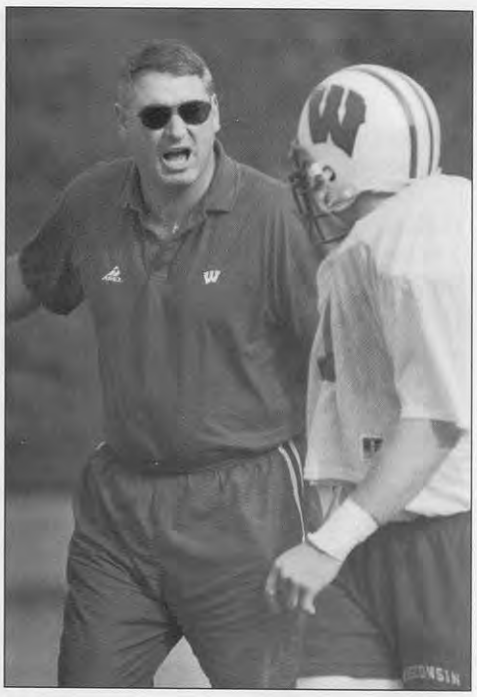
THE NO. 2 MAN on Wisconsin's football coaching staff is assistant head coach John Palermo. Entering his fifth season with the Badgers, Palermo will coach defensive linemen this fall after four seasons working with the outside linebackers.

Palermo, who has coached for eight seasons in the Big Ten, tutored four Badger outside linebackers who gained honorable mention all-Big Ten honors. The group includes Dwight Reese (1992), Chad Yocum (1992), Chris Hein (1994) and Tarek Saleh (1994).

Yocum led the Big Ten in fumbles forced as a freshman. Bryan Jurewicz earned third-team freshman all-America honors by Football News in 1993. Saleh was the club leader (sixth in the conference) with seven QB sacks in '94.

Palermo assisted with the development of the defensive schemes that Wisconsin used when it was nationally ranked in rushing defense in both 1992 and 1993. The Rose Bowl team of two years ago surrendered just 16.3 points per game, the lowest average since 1963. Palermo's two-deep lineup on that team included a pair of walk-ons and two first-year freshmen.

Before joining Alvarez' staff at the UW, Palermo was head coach for one year (1990) at Austin Peay. In his two seasons (1988-89) at Notre Dame, Palermo and Alvarez designed the Fighting Irish defense, which ranked 13th and 14th nationally in total defense. ND won the national title in 1988 and finished second in the final '89 Associated Press poll. The Irish posted a 24-1 record during his tenure, and the defense held 10 opponents to single-digit scoring.



His feature players on Notre Dame's defensive line included consensus all-America choice Chris Zorich, now with the Chicago Bears. Jeff Alm was a second-team all-America pick in 1989.

Palermo worked four seasons (1984-87) at Minnesota, coaching the Golden Gophers to the 1985 Independence and 1986 Liberty Bowls. He also was an assistant coach at Appalachian State (1983), Memphis State (1980-82) and Austin Peay (1979) and a graduate assistant at North Carolina State (1977-78).

BOWL EXPERIENCE
UNLV — 1994 Las Vegas Bowl; Notre Dame — 1990 Orange Bowl; 1989 Fiesta Bowl

THE NEWEST MEMBER of the Badger offensive coaching staff is running backs assistant Brian White. The 31-year-old White has served as an assistant working with running backs and wide receivers for the past nine years at four different schools.

White came to Wisconsin from UNLV, where he worked with head coach Jeff Horton, one of the nation's top authorities in the passing game. The 1994 Rebels won the Big West championship and then defeated Central Michigan 52-24 in the Las Vegas Bowl.

As the UNLV passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach, White worked with Randy Gatewood, who caught 92 passes. He set NCAA records with 23 receptions and 363 yards receiving in a game against Idaho. White had worked previously (1990-92) at UNLV for former Notre Dame assistant coach Jim Strong, where he coached Rebel running backs.

Between assignments at UNLV, White was an assistant to Horton at Nevada-Reno in 1993. As coordinator of the pass offense, he worked with quarterback Chris Vargas and receiver Bryan Reeves. Vargas led the nation in total offense and Reeves was the nation's second-leading receiver with 92 catches. Reeves currently plays for the Phoenix Cardinals. Nevada-Reno led the nation in total offense with a per-game average of 589.

White spent two falls (1988-89) at Notre Dame as a graduate assistant. He worked primarily with the running backs and coached pro players Ricky Watters, Tony Brooks, Mark Green, Anthony Johnson and Rodney Culver. His first coaching job was at Fordham, where he worked with backs.

As a player, White blossomed as a quarterback at Harvard, leading the Crimson to a 7-3 record in 1985. He was second-team all-Ivy League and finished his career as the school's second all-time leading passer (2,335 yards). A two-year starter on the field, White also made the ECAC honor roll. White has a B.A. in history from Harvard (1986), an M.A. from Fordham (1988) and an MBA from Notre Dame (1990).

White's father, Don, lettered for three seasons at Notre Dame and was the Fighting Irish starting quarterback in 1959.

VETERAN COLLEGIATE COACH Bernie Wyatt begins his sixth season as a member of the Badger coaching staff. He is the only remaining offensive coach from Barry Alvarez' original staff.

Wyatt is beginning his fourth season in charge of Wisconsin tight ends. One of the nation's most-respected and effective East Coast recruiters, Wyatt came to the UW as recruiting coordinator (1990-91) before returning to the field as tight ends coach in 1992. For the last two years, Wyatt has coached tight ends and coordinated recruiting.

As tight ends coach, Wyatt worked with four-time all-Big Ten choice Michael Roan. Under Wyatt's guidance, Roan had 92 career receptions (sixth-most in Wisconsin history) for 980 yards. Those figures are the second-most for a tight end in Badger history. Roan was a fourth-round NFL draft pick by Houston.

His recruiting skills are well-documented in the record books. Three members of the Badgers' starting secondary from 1994 —Jamel Brown, Kenny Gales and Donny Brady — were Wyatt recruits, as was Lee DeRamus, the school's No. 2 all-time receiver. Gales (Chicago) and DeRamus (New Orleans) were sixth-round NFL draft picks in '95.

Wisconsin's recruiting hauls during the Wyatt years have been excellent. The 1992 and 1994 classes were rated 10th and 13th nationally.

Wyatt, who has 21 years of experience coaching in the Big Ten, worked 16 seasons at Iowa before rejoining Barry Alvarez in Madison. Wyatt was Iowa's first full-time recruiting coordinator (1979). He worked with Hawkeye outside linebackers and tutored several of his own recruits —

Andre Tippett and Joe Mott — who went on to pro careers. Tippett, a perennial All-Pro with the Patriots, was a 1981 consensus all-American at Iowa. Wyatt signed many eventual NFL players at Iowa, including Ronnie and Kevin Harmon, Bob Kratch, Mike Devlin, Quinn Early, Devon Mitchell and Owen Gill.

Before joining the Iowa staff, Wyatt was a high school coach at Iowa City (Iowa) Regina and Lindenhurst (N.Y.) high schools. His Lindenhurst squads registered a 37-8-1 record.

The former high school all-American at Amityville (N.Y.) High School broke many of NFL Hall of Famer Jim Brown's records. He was inducted into the Suffolk County Hall of Fame last spring. Wyatt was the Hawkeyes' team MVP in 1960 when the club was 8-1. He played in the Blue-Gray all-star game and played one season (1961) for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

John Chadima

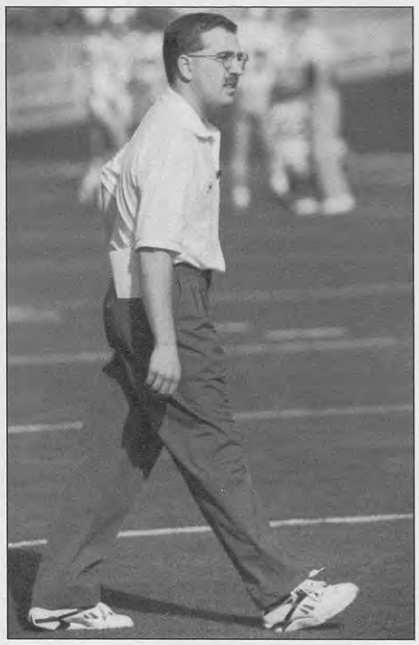
Administrative Assistant (6th year at Wisconsin)

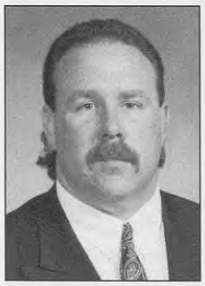
One of the original members of Barry Alvarez' staff at the UW, John Chadima, is in his sixth year as administrative assistant for the football team. He is responsible for coordinating all off-the-field activities for the UW gridiron squad.

In his role at Wisconsin, Chadima works specifically with the Badgers' multi-million dollar budget, team travel, the football camp, the summer job program and scheduling.

Prior to his appointment at Wisconsin, he was a football manager at Iowa from 1983-87. Chadima was a graduate assistant in administration for the Hawkeye Athletic Department from 1987-89.

The 1988 graduate of the University of Iowa earned a B.S. degree in athletic administration. The 30-year-old native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is single and resides in Madison.





Pat Meech

Graduate Assistant

Pat Meech begins his first season as a graduate assistant coach at Wisconsin. The 30-year-old Meech will work with Jim Hueber and the offensive line.

Meech coached four seasons at A.B. Miller High School in Fontana, Calif. He was in charge of the offensive line and tight ends for teams which posted a 26-17 record.

Meech, who played for UW offensive coordinator Brad Childress at Northern Arizona, earned his B.S. degree from NAU in 1988. He was a four-year letterman and earned honorable mention all-Big Sky recognition in 1987.

He added a Master's of Education from Azusa Pacific in 1993. Meech and his wife, Stephanie, live in Madison.

Brian Murphy

Graduate Assistant

Brian Murphy is in his second campaign at Wisconsin as a graduate assistant. Murphy's responsibilities will be with John Palermo on the Badgers' defensive line.

Murphy served as assistant recruiting coordinator in the spring of 1994 after working as a volunteer assistant in the academic affairs office for the Badger football program in 1993.

A native of Riverside, Ill., Murphy spent one season (1992) as an assistant coach on the defensive line at Illinois Benedictine College before coming to UW-Madison.

He was a four-year football letterwinner at defensive end for Lehigh University from 1988-91. He holds a degree in international relations from Lehigh (1992).

Murphy, 26, is single and lives in Madison.

Chancellor

David Ward

Chancellor

CHANCELLOR DAVID WARD, the university's 25th chief executive, is actively positioning the University of Wisconsin-Madison for continued excellence in the next century.

Ward, who assumed the chancellorship in June 1993, insists that the university must anticipate societal changes relevant to higher education, and envisions the university as more of an educational partner with public schools, businesses, industry, and its alumni and friends.

"We have a tradition of excellence upon which to build and much to preserve, but I believe it is time for the university to start doing some things differently - not just doing the same things better," said Ward in his 1995 report to the university community entitled "A Vision for the Future: Priorities for UW-Madison in the Next Decade."

"To achieve these ends, we need to pursue our goals within a shared vision of a university that will be as outstanding in the next century as it has been in the past, and is in the present."

Ward was named chancellor after serving as vice chancellor for academic affairs and, additionally, as provost. As the chief executive officer, he has led efforts to improve the quality of undergraduate education, including improved class access and increased undergraduate engagement in research. He has coordinated efforts to enhance the diversity of the UW-Madison campus and restore support for the university's infrastructure, such as libraries, laboratories and computer facilities. Ward has helped to adapt some of the principles of quality management to academic objectives of the campus.

Ward, who also holds the Andrew Hill Clark Professorship of Geography, says "changes in our funding, in the public's perception and confidence in higher education, and in the demand for high levels of accountability, require us to demonstrate our skills in strategic planning so that citizens of Wisconsin are able to recognize our commitment to education."

Ward was born in Manchester, England, and received bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Leeds. He earned a Fulbright Travel award to the United States in 1960 and received a doctorate from UW-Madison in 1963. In 1966 he joined the faculty. He later served as chair of the geography department and, still later, associate dean of the Graduate School.

As a scholar Ward is a recognized authority in urban geography. He is a past president of the Association of American Geographers. He has authored two books, edited two books and contributed many articles in leading academic journals. In recognition of his postdoctoral research, Ward was awarded the degree of Litt.D. by his undergraduate alma mater.

Ward is married to Judith B. Ward, who is the executive associate director of the Waisman Center on Mental Retardation and Human Development. They have two sons.

Pat Richter

Director of Athletics

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS PAT RICHTER, the former all-America gridiron star, three-sport letterman and successful business executive, is the man in charge of one of the NCAA's most thriving athletic departments.

During a time of budget tightening, presidential reform and gender equity concerns, Richter has built a model intercollegiate program.

As Director of Athletics, he is responsible for 20 sports, nearly 700 student-athletes and more than 160 employees. During his tenure, he has witnessed dramatic change. Consider he ...

- inherited a division that was $2.1 million in debt in 1990 and eliminated the red ink on the financial ledgers in less than four years. That recovery came during a time when three-quarters of the Division I programs in the United States were losing money.
- watched the football, basketball and hockey squads set season attendance marks during his administration. Badger football, basketball and hockey filled their venues to 98 percent of capacity last season.
- oversaw plans for significant facility improvements, most notably the proposal for an on-campus multi-purpose arena.

Perhaps one of Richter's most satisfying seasons was the 1993-94 campaign when his alma mater won the Rose Bowl and qualified for its first NCAA men's basketball tournament in 47 seasons.

All 20 of the division's sports have competed in NCAA post-season play during his tenure, and the UW has placed in the Top 15 for total sports success in all three seasons of the Director's Cup.

AS A BADGER PLAYER, he earned all-America (1961-62) and academic all-America (1962) honors as an end. He led Wisconsin to the 1963 Rose Bowl and set a game record with 11 receptions.

Richter led the Big Ten in receiving twice and is still the third-leading receiver in school history. As a senior, Richter won Wisconsin's 1963 Big Ten Medal of Honor.

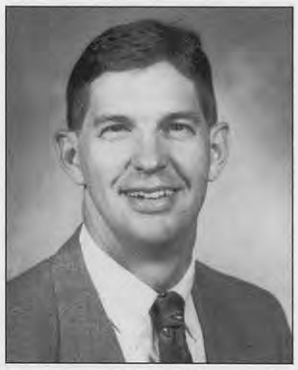
He earned all-league honors in baseball and led UW in hits, homers and RBI three times. Pat earned his scholarship for basketball.

After earning his B.S. degree from the UW in landscape architecture (1964), Pat was a first-round draft pick of the Washington Redskins. He played from 1963-71.

UPON RETIREMENT from the NFL, he returned to Wisconsin to earn his law degree (1971). After working at a Madison law firm, he climbed his way to vice president of personnel at Oscar Mayer Corp.

Richter was honored with an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award for post-college achievements in 1988. He is a member of the Wisconsin State Athletic and Madison Sports Halls of Fame, the NFL Player and Alumni Associations and the American Bar Association. Pat was enshrined in the Athletic Department and Rose Bowl Halls of Fame in '91 and '94, respectively. Last spring, he became the second Badger to gain induction into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

PAT AND HIS WIFE, Renee, have four children: Scott, Brad, Barry and Tim.



Alan Fish

Administrative Officer

ALAN FISH, Administrative and Financial Officer at the Athletic Department since 1989, oversees several internal units in the Division and serves as the liaison to the Athletic Board and campus and state governments.

Fish, who came to the Department after three years (1987-89) as the Director of Policy and Budget for the Department of DHSS, will coordinate planning for the school's proposed sports arena.

He worked previously as a liaison to the State Assembly, a budget analyst for the State Budget Office and a program evaluator for the Legislative Audit Bureau.

The 1973 graduate of Luther College is married to Susan Goodwin. They have three children: Cassie (15), Molly (9) and Nick (7).

Administration

Cheryl Marra

Sports Administrator

CHERYL MARRA begins her fifth year with the University of Wisconsin as a sports administrator for volleyball, men's and women's basketball, soccer, tennis, swimming and golf.

She is the Badgers' primary women's athletic administrator to the Big Ten and NCAA.

Marra served as the women's athletic director at Denison University from 1983-90. She served as an assistant professor in the physical education department at Denison for seven years while serving as head soccer (11 years) and track (nine) coach.

She has been a member of the NCAA's Committee on Women's Athletics since 1987 and served as chair of the Women's Soccer Committee.

A 1977 graduate of Slippery Rock State, Marra received her M.A. from Ohio State in 1983.

Joel Maturi

Sports Administrator

SPORTS ADMINISTATOR Joel Maturi has been a member of the UW Department of Athletics since 1987.

Maturi is the chief administrator for football and nine other sports.

He formerly served the department as compliance coordinator and director of facilities and game management.

Maturi was named Wisconsin Sports Personality of the Year in 1993 for his directorship of NCAA and Big Ten meets.

The former head football and basketball coach at Edgewood High School took several of his teams to the state tourney.

The 1967 graduate of Notre Dame was a member of the football team while earning a B.A. in political science.

Maturi and his wife, Lois, have three children: Mark, Katie and Annie.

Nancy Seifert

Chief Financial Officer

NANCY SEIFERT has been a member of the UW Department of Athletics since 1992.

As chief financial officer, Seifert is responsible for overseeing financial planning, budgeting, accounting and business functions for the division. She has been instrumental in updating and enhancing the department financial systems and business management techniques.

Prior to her appointment with the Athletic Department, she was Chief Financial Officer for WPPI Inc. and the World Council of Credit Unions.

Seifert is a graduate of the UW with a B.B.A. in accounting and an M.B.A. in finance and accounting. She is a licensed Certified Public Accountant.

Seifert and her husband, Michael, have one daughter, Leigh Ann.

Vince Sweeney

VINCE SWEENEY, in his fifth year at UW-Madison, oversees the athletic department's marketing, promotions, licensing, sports information, ticket office, special events and fundraising areas.

In 1994, Sweeney was named "Marketer of the Year" by the Madison Chapter of the American Marketing Association. Last spring, his department won two "Awards of Excellence" from Athletics Management magazine.

Prior to joining the UW, Sweeney worked for 13 years in sports journalism, where he earned several awards as a reporter and editor for the Madison Press Connection, Milwaukee Journal, Milwaukee Sentinel, Madison Capital Times and the Los Angeles Times.

He and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters, Kelsey and Keara.

Support Heads

John Dettmann

Strength & Condition. Coord.

JOHN DETTMANN is in his fourth year as director of the strength and conditioning program at Wisconsin and his sixth campaign serving the Badger football program.

Dettmann directs the conditioning programs and facilities for all UW athletic teams.

Prior to Wisconsin, Dettmann worked in administration at the Houston (1984-86) and Ft. Lauderdale (1988-89) YMCAs. Between those assignments, he was employed at the Enron Corporation.

He earned his B.S. degree in corporate fitness from UW-Oshkosh. Dettmann was an honorable mention all-American, team MVP and Athlete of the Year as a senior. He was inducted into the UW-Oshkosh Athletic Hall of Fame in '93. Dettmann is single.

Dennis Helwig

Head Athletic Trainer

DENNIS HELWIG is starting his second decade at the University of Wisconsin and his 11th year as head football trainer. Helwig also supervises the Sports Medicine Program.

Helwig was the UW hockey trainer for 10 seasons, earning four NCAA championship rings, before becoming the head athletic trainer in 1984. He is currently an advisor to USA Hockey, the sport's national governing body. He worked at the 1984 Winter Olympics and the 1987 World University Summer Games.

A 1974 graduate of the UW in physical education and dance, he was an assistant trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles (1975) before returning to Madison.

Helwig and his wife, Jan, are the parents of one son, Christopher.

Scott Jenkins

Facilities & Event Mgmt.

SCOTT JENKINS, a four-time cross country and one-time track all-American at Wisconsin, starts his second year as director of facilities and game management for the department of athletics.

Prior to joining the athletic department at his alma mater, Jenkins directed the Space Management and Licensing Bureau at the Wisconsin Department of Administration.

He also was director of the Wisconsin Bureau of Building Management and was a facility manager at the Trammell Crow Company in Milwaukee.

Jenkins, who earned a B.S. degree in construction administration, made the Dean's List seven times during his career. He was a member of two NCAA champion cross country teams and placed as high as fifth (1982) individually at the NCAA meet.

Jim McCormick

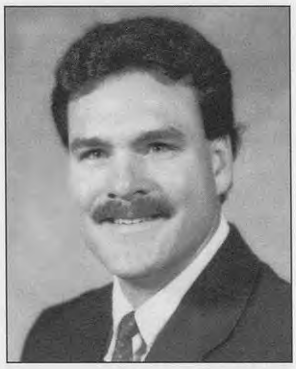
Equipment Manager

JIM MCCORMICK is in his fifth season as head equipment manager for the department of athletics. He is responsible for the ordering and inventory of equipment for all UW teams and also oversees the mail room operation.

Before joining the staff, McCormick served as equipment coordinator at his alma mater, Western Michigan. He worked as a student assistant on the equipment staff at WMU as an undergraduate. McCormick is a member of the American Equipment Managers Association.

The native of Ishpeming, Mich., earned a B.S. degree in elementary science and math from Western Michigan in 1988. He and his wife, Jayne, live in Madison.

Support Heads



Tim Van Alstine

Ticket Director

TIM VAN ALSTINE begins his sixth season as director of ticket operations at the University of Wisconsin. Van Alstine was assistant ticket director for one year before his promotion.

Prior to joining the Badger staff, Van Alstine was director of athletic services for one year at Maine. He also served as academic counselor (1986-89) at Illinois and assistant football coach at Loras College (1983-86).

The former all-conference linebacker at St. Norbert College earned a tryout with the Michigan Panthers of the USFL after his graduation.

Van Alstine has a B.A. in English from St. Norbert, an M.S. in administration and supervision from Fordham and a Ph.D. from Illinois.

He and his wife, Lynn, have twin daughters (Abby and Leah).

Rob Zagame

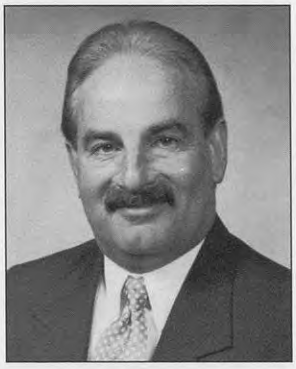
Video Coordinator

ROB ZAGAME starts his second year as Video Coordinator for the Department of Athletics at Wisconsin.

He is responsible for coordinating video requirements, both during practices and games, for the entire division.

Zagame came to the UW-Madison from the University of Pittsburgh, where he was the Assistant Video Coordinator for athletics. He was responsible for Pitt's video editing.

He earned a B.A. in communications from UW-Stevens Point. Zagame is single and resides in Madison.



Alan Zussman

Support Services Director

ALAN ZUSSMAN has been a member of the Wisconsin Department of Athletics since 1976. As Director of the Academic Affairs Office, Alan oversees a staff of 11 full-time support personnel who have responsibilities for 625 student-athletes representing 20 teams.

Prior to the coming to the Athletic Department, Alan was the Assistant to the Dean of the College of Letters and Science at the UW-Madison.

An active member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics, Alan served for three years as an officer and member of the Executive Board.

Zussman earned his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the UW in communication arts and has completed coursework for his doctorate in educational administration.

Badger Items — candidate for the Davey O'Brien and Johnny Unitas national quarterback awards ... No. 1 quarterback in Wisconsin history for virtually every category ... has led the Badgers to 21 victories, more than any other quarterback in school history ... could become just the fifth player in Big Ten history to throw for more than 7,000 yards and complete at least 60 percent of his passes ... directed the only two teams in Wisconsin history to gain more than 5,000 total yards ... already owns the school career marks for attempts, completions, completion percentage, yards and touchdowns ... needs 1,521 yards to move into the Big Ten's list of top 10 career passers ... Badgers are 11-1 in his starting assignments the last two years when he doesn't throw an interception ... 12 of his interceptions in the last two seasons (96 attempts) have come in three games (Minnesota '93, Colorado '94 and Ohio State '94) ... in his other 411 attempts during that time, only nine were picked off ... has improved his 40-yard dash time (5.2 to 4.9), bench press (175 to 300) and weight (172 to 197) since arrival on campus ... team captain ... 25-year-old senior.

1994 — completed 60.2 percent of his passes (tied for second at UW) for 1,544 yards (eighth) and 17 TDs (third) for the Hall of Fame Bowl champions ... posted those figures despite missing eight quarters vs. Michigan State, Northwestern and Purdue ... suffered a third-degree shoulder separation at MSU ... registered a 225.6 efficiency rating vs. Indiana (13-17 for 184 yards and three TDs), the second-best figure in Wisconsin history ... Badgers gained a school-record 632 yards of total offense vs. the Hoosiers ... completed his first 13 passes against Indiana, one shy of his own UW record ... Chicago Tribune national player of the week vs. the Hoosiers ... regained arm strength late in the season and connected on 42-67 throws with six touchdowns and one interception in final three games (Cincinnati, Illinois and Duke).

1993 — finished third nationally (first in the Big Ten) in pass efficiency (155.2) to set a UW season record ... first Badger quarterback since Ron Vander Kelen (1962) to earn first-team all-Big Ten ... won team's Wayne Souza Award... led Wisconsin to its winningest season ever ... his 21-yard touchdown run was the game-winning score in the Rose Bowl vs. UCLA ... broke Big Ten records for completion percentage in a game (.944 vs. Northwestern) and season (.687) ... surpassed Badger mark for yards passing (2,390) and tied record for TD passes (19) in a season ... set Wisconsin records for yards passing (423) and total offense (416) at Minnesota ... five TD throws vs. Nevada were a Badger record ... a 226.7 efficiency rating vs. Purdue (15-20 for 204 yards, four TDs and no interceptions) set a Wisconsin mark ... his 155.2 season efficiency rating smashed the previous UW single-game mark of 140.2 by Ron Vander Kelen in the 1963 Rose Bowl ... Chicago Tribune player of the week vs. Nevada and ESPN player of the week vs. Purdue.

1992 — led Badgers to a 5-5 record in 10 starts ... started every game except the opener at Washington ... separated his shoulder in the sixth game vs. Purdue, but didn't miss a start ... 1,479 passing yards were the ninth-most in school history ... string of 62 consecutive passes without an interception ... scored game-winning two-point conversion in 18-17 victory over Northern Illinois ... hit 18-30 passes for 214 yards in upset of 12th-ranked Ohio State ... Badger offensive co-MVP vs. Northwestern after completing 21-37 passes for 274 yards.

Before Wisconsin — redshirted at Northern Arizona (1989) where current UW offensive coordinator Brad Childress was an assistant coach ... left NAU to go on a two-year Mormon mission in Cleveland (1990-91) ... came to Wisconsin in the spring of 1992.

High School — honorable mention all-state and two-time all-city at Chaparral ... broken finger as a senior limited him to two games ... passed for 500 yards and five TDs before injury ... 1,500 yards passing, 17 touchdowns and four interceptions as a junior ... played for his father ... 3.4 GPA.

Personal — born 1/6/70 ... married, his wife's name is Tammy ... zoology major ... parents are Jim and Donna.

THE JUREWICZ FILE

When I first met Coach Alvarez, I thought: he was the man.
If I could change one thing about football, I'd: tape the offensive linemen's hands shut.
People wouldn't believe me if I told them that: I like to draw.
The best player I've played against is: Korey Stringer.
In 20 years, I'd like to: own my own engineering construction firm.
The person in history I'd most like to meet is: Stevie Ray Vaughn.
If a genie granted me three wishes, I'd ask for: a Harley motorcycle, unlimited trips around the world and more wishes.

THE TORIAN FILE

Three words to describe me are: fast, perceptive and bright.

My ESPN Sports Center highlight would be: to lineup against the nation's top DB. As the ball is snapped, I fly past him and catch a 99-yard bomb from Bevell and fire extinguishers are used on the DB who was "burned."

If a genie granted me three wishes, I'd ask for: bigger hands, a lifetime supply of Twinkies and unlimited wishes.

The people in history I'd most like to meet are: Jesse Owens and O.J. Simpson.

People wouldn't believe me if I told them that: I used to despise football and played only five games in high school.

QUICK TURNAROUND EFFORTS

Barry Alvarez has pushed his career record (28-27-2) over the break-even point. Wisconsin was 28 games below .500 in the five years before his arrival. The quick resurgence by the Badgers under Alvarez compares very favorably with several other programs which had challenging first seasons.

Coach	First Season	Games to reach .500	5-year record
Barry Alvarez, Wisconsin	1-10	56	28-27-2
George Welsh, Virginia	2-9	30	26-29-2

Ranked in order of five-year record

RUN GAME SUCCESS

The best predictor of success for Alvarez' teams has been the club's rushing game. During his tenure, the Badgers have a 24-7-2 record (.758) when they outgain the opponent on the ground. The mark is 4-20 (.167) when UW is outrushed. In his career, Alvarez has posted a 16-1 record when the Badgers outgain the opponent by at least 100 yards on the ground.

In the last two years, Wisconsin has rushed for at least 300 yards on six occasions. UW has produced 29 100-yard rushing days during that span. Two Badgers have made the century mark in the same game on eight occasions in the last two years.

Wisconsin's rushing defense has held 13 of the last 24 opponents under 125 yards rushing. The Badgers played against four of the NCAA's top 25 rushing offenses last fall, and none of the foes reached their season average. Colorado (No. 3 nationally in rushing) was held 120 yards below its average; Purdue (No. 12) was 72 yards below its norm; Indiana (No. 16) was 109 yards below its average; and Michigan (No. 23) was 52 yards below its norm.

ALAVERZ' CAREER RECORD WHEN ...

UW rushes for:
200 yards or more 18-3-2
250 yards or more 13-1-1
300 yards or more 6-0

Opponent rushes for:
100 yards or less 8-2
125 yards or less 20-3
150 yards or less 23-7-1

UW 56, E. Michigan 0

Badgers	14	21	14	7 —	56

MADISON — The Badgers had a 327-yard advantage in the rushing game and posted their first shutout in 114 contests in a 56-0 win over Eastern Michigan. The margin of victory equalled the school record set in 1962 against New Mexico State (69-13). Wisconsin rushed for a school-record seven touchdowns, including three each by Brent Moss and Terrell Fletcher. EMU had three times as many yards in kickoff returns (101) as net yards rushing (33). Wisconsin's defensive troops created five turnovers and got three tackles for loss from NG Jason Maniecki. Eastern Michigan managed just three-plays-and-a-punt five times.

BOULDER — Wisconsin surrendered 13 first-half points off turnovers, and No. 7 Colorado turned that into a 55-17 win in a battle of Top 10-ranked squads. The Badgers, despite a five-minute advantage in time of possession, more first downs (22-20) and a 93-yard advantage in the rushing game (264-171), lost by 38 points. Colorado QB Kordell Stewart averaged 31 yards on his eight pass completions, but the UW held Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam to his lowest output (85 yards) of the year. Brent Moss was the Badgers' ESPN Player of the Game with 118 yards rushing. UW had a minus 4 turnover margin.

Hoosiers	0	0	0	13 —	13
Badgers	21	20	14	7 —	62

MADISON — Wisconsin scored on its first six possessions and coasted to a 62-13 win over Indiana. The Badgers' 41-point first-half broke a UW mark for points in a half. Wisconsin's defense limited the NCAA's second-best rushing offense to 113 yards, and the Badgers set a school record with 632 yards of total offense. The Hoosiers gained 31 total yards in the opening half and didn't make a first down until their seventh possession. During one stretch, the Badgers scored on three consecutive plays (catches by Michael Roan and Tony Simmons and a Terrell Fletcher run).

Badgers	3	7	0	0 —	10
Spartans	7	9	0	13 —	29

EAST LANSING — Wisconsin suffered four turnovers and surrendered 420 total yards in a 29-10 loss at Michigan State. Brent Moss rushed for a season-best 173 yards, but the Spartans' opportunistic defense stopped a pair of Badger drives inside the MSU 25-yard line with turnovers. Three-year starting QB Darrell Bevell suffered a shoulder separation in the first half, and Wisconsin's passing game netted just 71 yards. The Spartans' 259 yards rushing were the most Wisconsin had allowed in 19 games. Eric Unverzagt was credited with a career-best 19 tackles, the most at the UW since '91, and two passes defended.

EVANSTON — Wisconsin overcame a halftime deficit for the first time in 16 games by outscoring Northwestern 36-0 in the second half on the way to a 46-14 victory at Evanston. Terrell Fletcher (186 yards) and Brent Moss (145) keyed a 394-yard rushing attack. The Badgers' defense limited the Wildcats to zero points, 57 total yards and three first downs in the second half. Northwestern ran just four plays on each of its opening five series of the second half. The sixth series was a one-play effort that resulted in a UW safety. John Hall was a special weapon on kickoffs pinning NU to an average starting field position of the 12-yard line in the second half.

Boilers	14	0	10	3 —	27
Badgers	7	3	7	10 —	27

MADISON — A 53-yard field goal attempt by John Hall in the final seconds missed by a few feet as the Badgers settled for a 27-27 tie with Purdue. Terrell Fletcher (141 yards rushing) and Jason Burns (101) keyed the offense, which also got 300 yards passing. Wisconsin owned a 27-24 lead and was on Purdue's 17-yard line when Burns' fumble with 1:54 left was returned 47 yards to set up a game-tying FG. Darrell Bevell completed four passes on a last-ditch drive to set up Hall's final attempt. The wild fourth quarter included a TD, a blocked FG, a made FG, the missed game-winning FGA and a fourth-down stand by the Badger defense.

MADISON — Wisconsin's running game was held 190 yards below its season average, and Minnesota drove 80 yards in 17 seconds for the winning score as the Golden Gophers pulled off a 17-14 upset on homecoming. It was the UW's first home loss in 10 games. The Badgers limited Minnesota to only 96 yards on the ground, but lost for just the second time (7-2) under Coach Barry Alvarez when holding the opponent under the century mark for rushing. The Badgers rushed for 129 yards, their lowest figure since the '92 finale. Terrell Fletcher gained 101 yards, extending Wisconsin's streak of games with a 100-yard rusher to 19 straight.

ANN ARBOR — Wisconsin used a plus-4 turnover margin to upset Michigan 31-19 in the Badgers' first victory at Ann Arbor since 1962. Wisconsin, which had a minus-9 turnover margin in the previous six weeks, played its second error-free game of the season and recorded a Big Ten season-high four turnovers. Darrell Bevell (three TD passes) led a balanced UW attack that featured a pair of touchdown receptions by Tony Simmons. Eric Unverzagt was the Big Ten's Defensive Player of the Week with two interceptions, a QB sack and eight tackles. The crowd of 106,209 was the largest gathering ever to watch a UW football game.

COLUMBUS — Ohio State's defense held Wisconsin to its lowest total offensive output in 35 games and posted a 24-3 decision at Columbus. The Badgers trailed just 10-3 at halftime, despite being outgained 242-72. Four second-half turnovers halted any comeback opportunities. Wisconsin, which entered the game ranked second in the Big Ten in rushing, managed just 49 yards. It was the Badgers' lowest total since '91. Brent Moss gained 52 yards, but had his string of 17 consecutive 100-yard rushing games snapped. UW, which had a minus-3 turnover margin, fell to 0-3-1 in games it had more turnovers than the opponent.

MADISON — Wisconsin scored on four of its opening five possessions in defeating Cincinnati 38-7 in its first November non-conference game in 42 years. Terrell Fletcher gained 201 all-purpose yards (165 rushing), and Darrell Bevell tossed three TD passes in the Badgers' most productive offensive effort in a month. Wisconsin lost its shutout bid with 0:27 left in the game. Mike Thompson led the defense with 10 stops, two for losses, and a fumble caused. Bevell became the school's career passing leader, and Fletcher became the ninth runner in UW history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a season.

MADISON — Terrell Fletcher rushed for a career-high 192 yards on 41 carries (second in UW history) as the Badgers wrapped up a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl with a 19-13 win over Illinois. Fletcher also became the first Wisconsin player to gain more than 4,000 career all-purpose yards. The UW defense held Illinois to just seven points prior to a controversial TD pass with 0:03 left. Darrell Bevell (213 yards passing) guided Wisconsin's offense, which gained 396 total yards. Illinois entered the game allowing just 274 yards per game. The Hall of Fame Bowl invite was the Badgers' second consecutive January postseason game.

TAMPA — Wisconsin got a Hall of Fame Bowl rushing record from Terrell Fletcher, and the defense intercepted four passes in a 34-20 victory over Duke. It was the Badgers' second straight January bowl victory. Fletcher gained 241 yards on 39 carries as Wisconsin boasted a 200-yard advantage in the rushing game. Jeff Messenger tied the school's career interception record in the first period with a 19-yard TD return. Duke had closed within 27-20 early in the fourth quarter before Fletcher's 49-yard run with 1:59 left sealed the verdict. Bowl officials estimated that the Badgers had more than 35,000 fans in attendance.

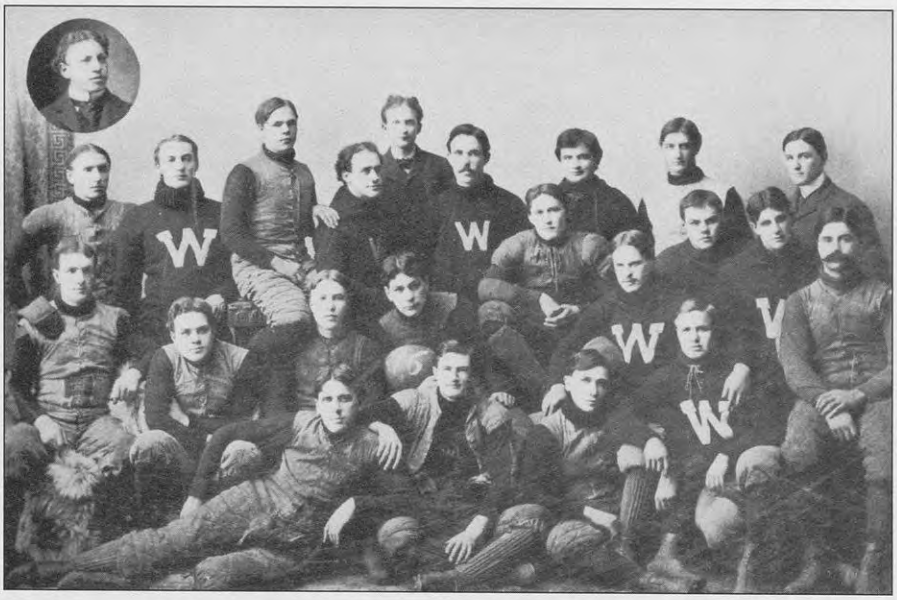
Darrell Bevell was the Big Ten's first-team all-conference quarterback in 1993.

1896 Big Ten Champs



Season Summary

After opening the season with seven victories, the Badgers tied Northwestern 6-6 and lost to the Carlisle Indians. Despite the late-season swoon, the Badgers claimed the inaugural Western Conference football championship. The Badgers' tough defense registered shutouts in six of its seven victories. The season-ending loss to the Carlisle Indians was the first night game in school history. It was contested indoors at the Chicago Coliseum.

1897 Big Ten Champs

Season Summary

Wisconsin won its second straight conference title and registered eight shutouts on the way to a 9-1 overall mark. The only loss was a 6-0 decision to the UW Alumni. Victories over Minnesota, Chicago and Northwestern propelled the Badgers to the Western Conference title. Australian kicker Pat O'Dea, the famed "Kangaroo Kicker," booted 14 field goals to lead the club. It was the second of three league titles for Coach Phil King, who posted a 65-11-1 career record at Wisconsin.

1901 Big Ten Champs

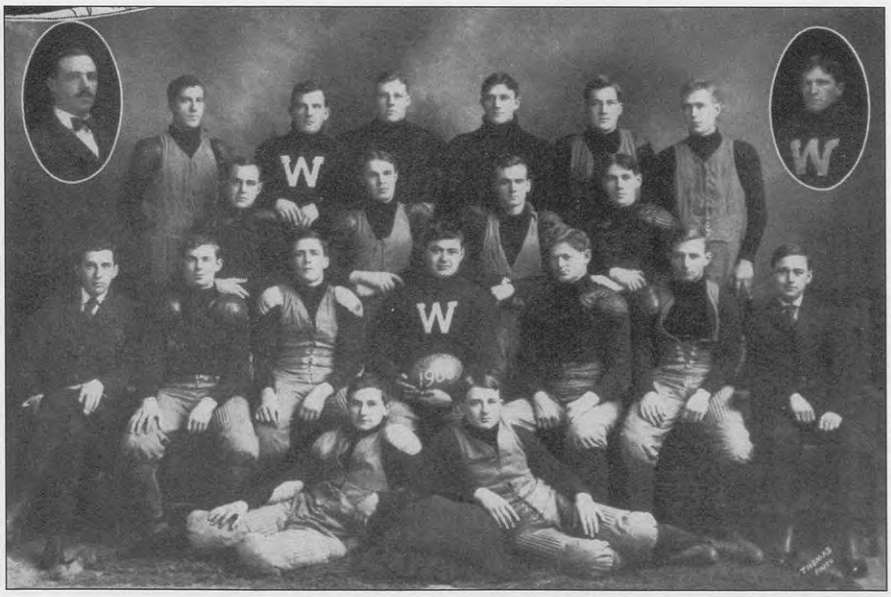
Season Summary

Coach Phil King's Badgers won nine straight games to become the first undefeated team in school history. Using a potent offense and stingy defense, Wisconsin defeated every opponent by at least three TDs and recorded eight shutouts to claim a piece of the Big Ten title. The Badgers outscored the opposition 317-5, the largest differential in UW history. Wisconsin's slate included two wins over high school teams and just two conference wins (Minnesota and Chicago).

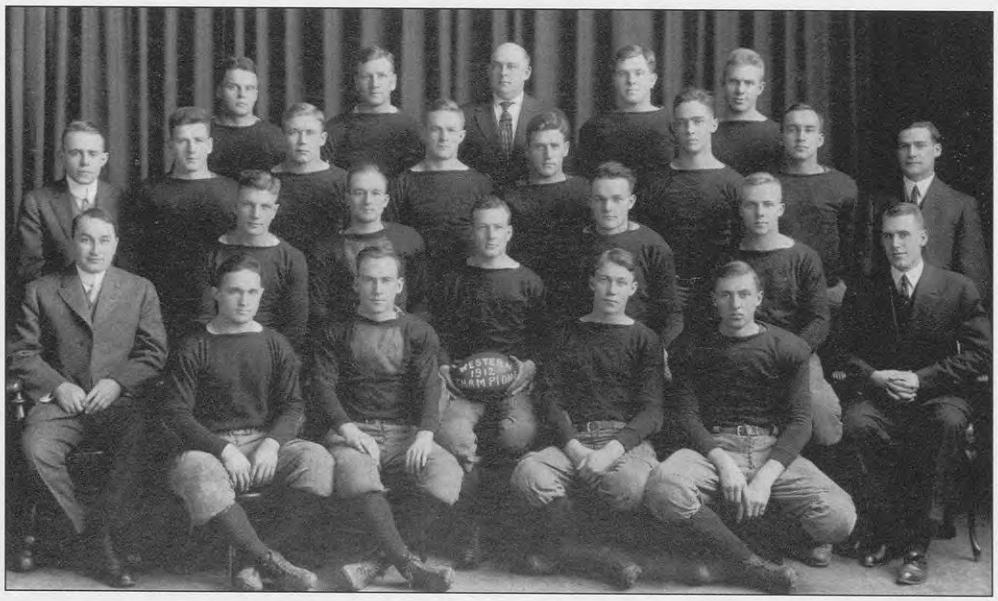
1906 Big Ten Champs

Season Summary

Although traditional league powers Minnesota, Michigan and Chicago were missing from the schedule due to a faculty reform movement that limited the number of games, Wisconsin claimed a share of the conference championship with the Gophers. Center Ewald Stiehm, Wisconsin's first all-league performer, helped the Badgers to a 5-0 slate. Coach C.P. Hutchins' team posted Western Conference wins over Iowa, Illinois and Purdue by a combined score of 63-15.



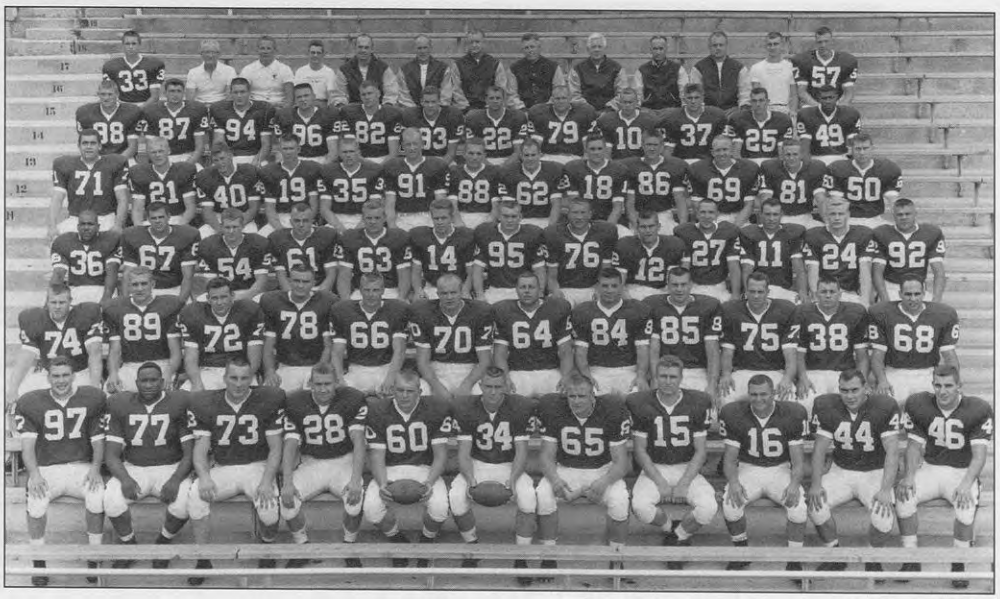
1912 Big Ten Champs



Season Summary

The Badgers culminated their third undefeated (7-0) season with a 28-10 win at Iowa. Coach William Juneau's squad was the last Badger team to post a perfect record. A 30-12 homecoming win over league runner-up Chicago propelled the UW to its fifth conference title. Led by consensus all-America tackle Robert "Butts" Butler, the Badgers placed a school-record nine players on the all-Western Conference team. Wisconsin registered four shutouts and allowed just 29 points the entire season.

1952 Big Ten Champs



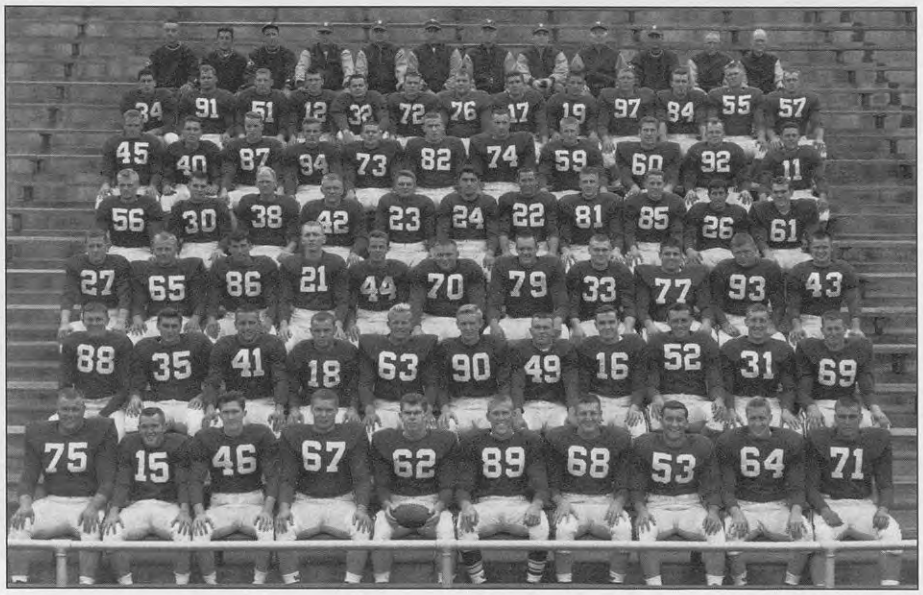
Season Summary

Following a 20-6 win over Illinois in the second game of the season, Wisconsin sat atop the polls as the nation's No. 1 team. It is the only time in school history that the Badgers were rated first. Wisconsin lost the following week, but went on to a 6-3-1 record and the school's first Rose Bowl appearance. After losing to USC 7-0 in Pasadena, the Badgers ended the season ranked 10th by UPI and 11th by AP. Led by all-Americans Don Voss and Dave Suminski, Wisconsin brought a share of the Big Ten title to Madison for the first time in 41 years.

1959 Big Ten Champs

Season Summary

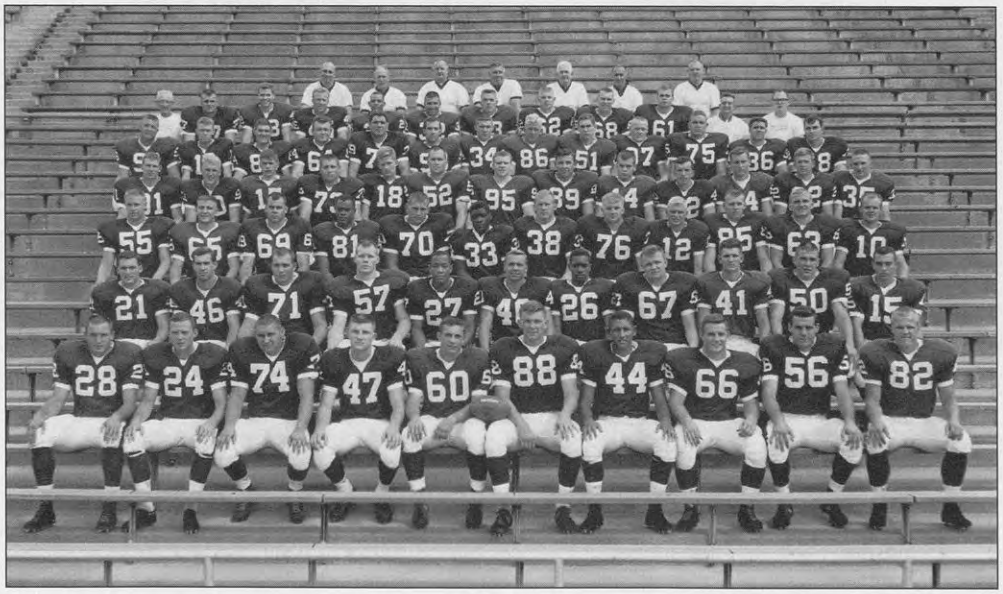
Needing a victory in the regular-season finale to clinch a league title, Wisconsin recovered from an early deficit and beat Minnesota 11-7. It was the Badgers' first undisputed title since 1912. At the Rose Bowl, Washington scored 17 points in the first quarter on the way to a 44-8 win. All-Big Ten QB Dale Hackbart, who led the team in rushing and scoring, all-America tackle Dan Lanphear and all-Big Ten guard Jerry Stalcup were stars on a club that finished the season ranked sixth by AP and UPI.



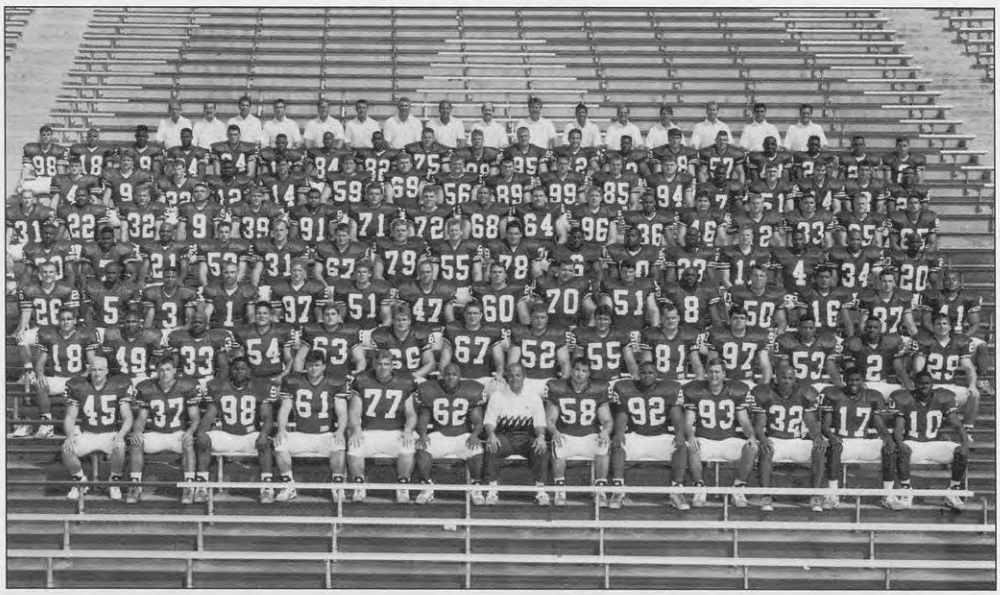
1962 Big Ten Champs

Season Summary

Opening the season with a 69-13 rout of New Mexico State at Camp Randall Stadium, the Badgers rolled to an 8-1 record and the Big Ten title. Although USC defeated Wisconsin 42-37 in perhaps the most exciting Rose Bowl ever, the Badgers finished the storybook campaign ranked second in both the AP and UPI polls. End Pat Richter was a consensus all-America choice after catching 49 passes for 694 yards. QB Ron Vander Kelen set a Rose Bowl record with 401 yards passing as the UW scored 23 straight points in a fourth quarter rally.



1993 Big Ten Champs



Season Summary

The 1993 Badgers established a new standard of excellence, shattering school records and earning numerous honors. After claiming Wisconsin's first Big Ten title in 31 years (a co-championship with Ohio State), the Badgers defeated UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. The 10-1-1 club became the winningest in school history and boasted eight first-team all-Big Ten players, including Big Ten and Rose Bowl Most Valuable Player Brent Moss. Wisconsin ended the season ranked 5th and 6th by the coaches and media, respectively.

1953 Rose Bowl

USC 7, Wisconsin 0

PASADENA, Calif. — Southern Cal scored the game's only points on a 22-yard touchdown pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first postseason appearance.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by tailback Alan Ameche's 133 yards, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground. However, both defenses rose to the occasion when necessary.

One of Wisconsin's best scoring chances came in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Ameche broke loose for a 54-yard run as the Badgers got to the USC 21-yard line. On third down, Archie Ray Burks fumbled on an end run and the Trojans recovered.

USC then put together the game-winning drive (73 yards), which ended on Bukich's touchdown pass. Wisconsin countered with a 13-play, 84-yard drive that ended at the Trojan 2-yard line when Jerry Witt was stopped a yard short of a first down on a fake field goal play.

Coach Ivy Williamson's club became the first in Badger history to play in a bowl game and the first to play before a crowd of more than 100,000.

1960 Rose Bowl

Washington 44, Wisconsin 8

PASADENA, Calif. — Underdog Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl victory over the Badgers. It was Wisconsin's second Rose Bowl trip.

Washington tallied the first TD on a 6-yard run by Don McKeta about 10 minutes into the game. George Fleming booted a 26-yard field goal after the Huskies recovered one of four Wisconsin fumbles. Fleming then returned a punt 53 yards for a score on the final play of the period for a 17-0 first quarter lead.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a 4-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8.

Husky quarterback Bob Schloredt, who shared game MVP honors with Fleming, tossed a 23-yard TD pass to close first-half scoring. Schloredt completed four passes for 102 yards and was the game's top rusher (81 yards).

Wisconsin mounted a final challenge in the third quarter, but four plays inside the Husky 10-yard line failed. Washington then marched 93 yards on 10 plays for another tally. Milt Bruhn's Badgers entered the game with a defense that had surrendered barely 10 points per game for the regular season.

USC 42, Wisconsin 37

PASADENA, Calif. — A 23-point fourth quarter explosion wasn't quite enough as the Badgers dropped a 42-37 Rose Bowl encounter to Southern Cal. The Trojans had claimed a 42-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter before the huge Badger comeback.

USC raced to a 21-7 halftime lead and extended it on the first play of the third stanza. Quarterback Pete Beathard hit Hal Bedsole for a 57-yard score. But then Badger QB Ron Vander Kelen led one of the biggest charges in bowl history.

Vander Kelen reached paydirt on a 17-yard scamper to reduce the margin to 28-14. Southern Cal responded with a pair of TD passes by Beathard and USC led 42-14 with 14:54 left to play.

Lou Holland (13-yard run) and Gary Kroner (4-yard reception) tallied for the Badgers within three minutes. A bad center snap on a punt resulted in a UW safety and a 42-30 Trojan advantage. After the free kick, Vander Kelen hit three straight passes, including a 19-yard score to Pat Richter for the final tally.

Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both Wisconsin and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

Tennessee 28, Wisconsin 21

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

The Badger defense limited UT to 89 yards rushing, but Volunteer QB Steve Alatorre unleashed a potent passing attack. Alatorre threw for 315 yards. WR Anthony Hancock caught 11 passes for 196 yards.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a 3-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost.

Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

The game featured two high-powered offenses that combined for 49 points, 793 total yards and 49 first downs. The teams averaged just under five yards per offensive play.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220. The Badgers' seven victories were the most since UW won the same number in 1974.

1982 Independence Bowl

Wisconsin 14, Kansas State 3

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game in the school's history with a 14-3 Independence Bowl victory over Kansas State.

Randy Wright threw a bowl-game record two touchdown passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record in the matchup between Big Ten and Big Eight schools before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero.

Wright, the game offensive MVP, completed only nine of 24 throws. However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in Wisconsin and Independence Bowl history. The UW defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

"Winning our first bowl game was a big accomplishment for our program," Coach Dave McClain said.

KSU had taken a 3-0 lead on Steve Willis' 29-yard field goal before the Badgers scored 14 straight points. Tim Krumrie was the game Defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry.

Game totals showed five turnovers, 14 punts, 22 completions in 59 attempts (37 percent) and 14 penalties.

1984 Hall of Fame Bowl

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Trailing by a point after the Wildcats' Joe Worley booted a 52-yard field goal with eight minutes left, the Badgers drove inside Kentucky's 20-yard line.

Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a 3-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

However, UW was assessed 13 penalties for 133 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records. The Badgers threw two interceptions. Kentucky, which was making its second straight postseason appearance in Birmingham, had no turnovers.

More than 7,500 Badger fans made the trip to the UW's third bowl game in four seasons.

Wisconsin 21, UCLA 16

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

More than 70,000 Badger fans attended the game and provided a distinct home field advantage in the Bruins' normal home facility. "I told our players it was like a home field advantage with the crowd," Coach Barry Alvarez said.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on a career-high 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second-and-eight from the UCLA 21-yard line, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badgers 18 before QB Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

The victory boosted Wisconsin to fifth (coaches) and sixth (media) in the final national polls and concluded a 10-1-1 season, the winningest in Wisconsin history.

"The win, as much as it was for our players and coaches, was for our fans," said Coach Alvarez. "They supported us all the way."

Wisconsin 34, Duke 20

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half. Jeff Messenger's 19-yard return of one of those pickoffs resulted in the Badgers' first TD.

Florida native John Hall added to the first-half lead with field goals of 48 and 43 yards. Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third period. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

After the Blue Devils cut the margin to seven (27-20) on Robert Baldwin's second score, Fletcher turned a critical third-and-one play into a 49-yard touchdown run to clinch the win. Fletcher bounced outside against Duke's tightly packed defense and wasn't touched on his way to paydirt.

More than 30,000 fans made the trip to Tampa as Wisconsin won its third game in row to close the season 7-4-1.

SILVER FOOTBALL

Six Wisconsin players have won the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football, given to the Big Ten Most Valuable Player.

The Badgers who have won the league's honor for best player include fullback Howard Weiss (1938), end Dave Schreiner (1942), center "Red" Wilson (1949), fullback Alan Ameche (1954), quarterback Ron Vander Kelen (1962) and tailback Brent Moss (1993).

Each league institution nominates its own MVP for consideration and college football reporters from the Chicago Tribune then choose the conference MVP.

Running back Terrell Fletcher was the Badgers' nominee last season.

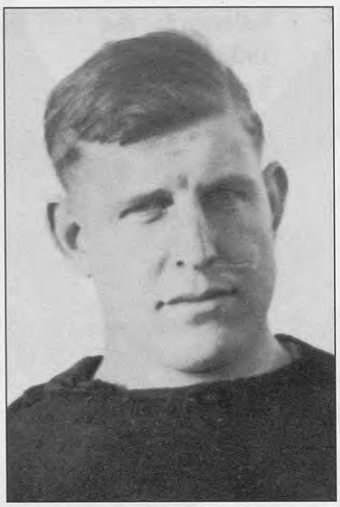
All-Americans (First-team only)

Robert Butler (1912)

A member of Wisconsin's last undefeated team in 1912, "Butts" Butler was the school's first consensus all-American. He was named to Walter Camp's all-America team as a junior (first-team) and senior (second-team). In the 1912 season finale against Minnesota, the tackle and his 10 teammates played the entire game in a 14-0 victory. He went on to compete professionally for the Canton Bulldogs and played with the legendary Jim Thorpe. Butler was later named to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1972.

Ray Keeler (1913)

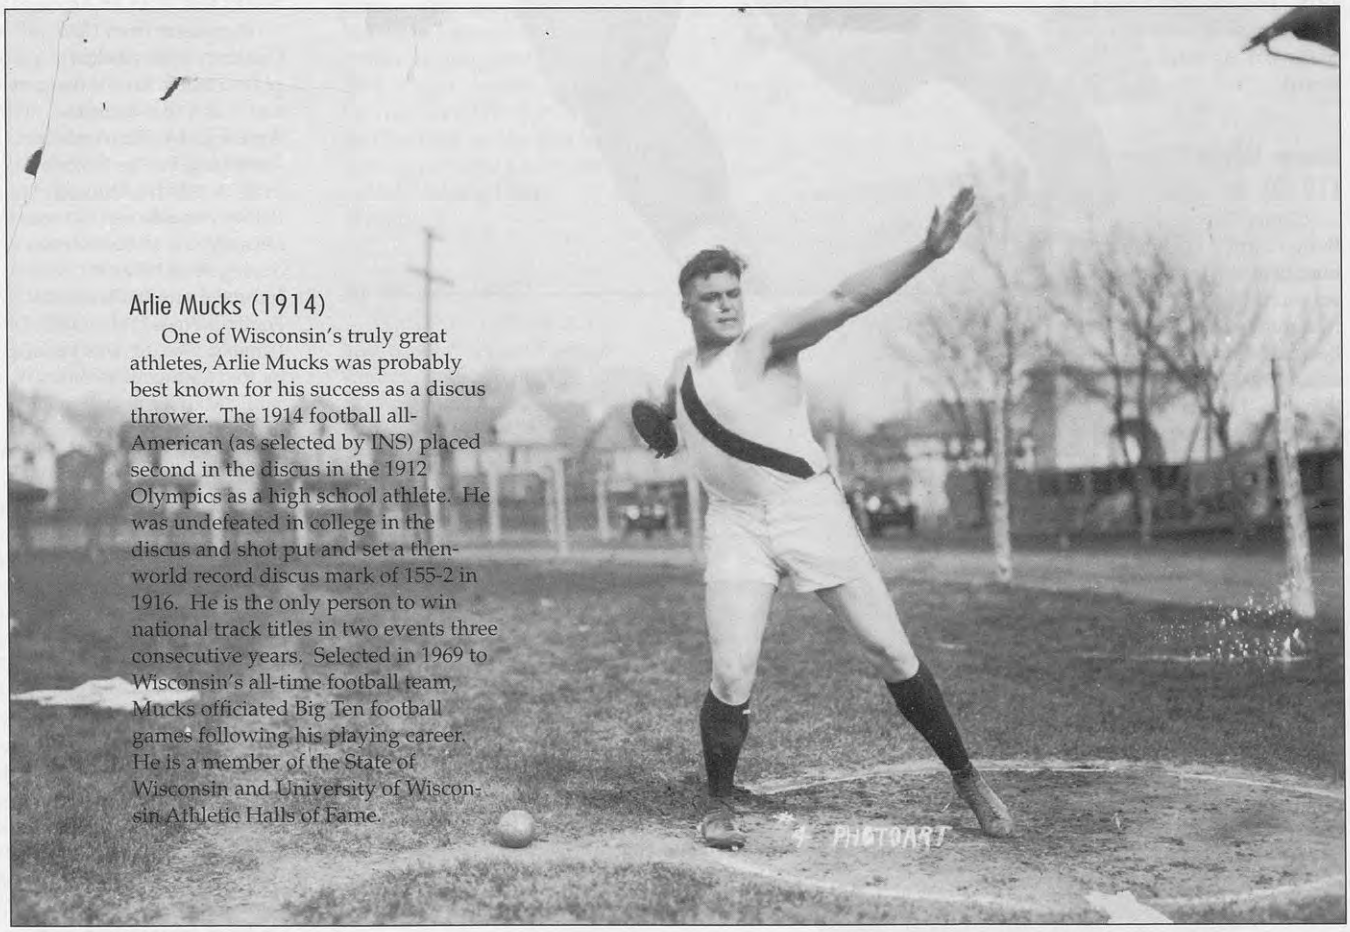
Consensus all-America lineman Ray "Tubby" Keeler was a three-time letterman in both football and track and field at Wisconsin. Despite just a 185-pound frame, he earned all-America recognition in his junior season from the International News Service. He captained the 1914 Badger squad and served on the Athletic Board in 1914 and 1915. Keeler went on to coach the UW-La Crosse football team to a 45-24-15 (.625) record from 1917-1929.



Howard "Cub" Buck

Howard Buck (1915)

A consensus all-America pick, Howard "Cub" Buck was labeled by many as the best college lineman of his era. He also played "roving center" on defense and was credited by several observers with making half of his team's tackles. Former Canton Bulldogs' teammate Jim Thorpe called Buck the finest lineman he ever played with. Buck also played for Green Bay from 1921-25 and is a member of the Packers' Hall of Fame. After his playing career, he became the first head football coach at Miami (Fla.) in 1926.



Arlie Mucks (1914)

One of Wisconsin's truly great athletes, Arlie Mucks was probably best known for his success as a discus thrower. The 1914 football all-American (as selected by INS) placed second in the discus in the 1912 Olympics as a high school athlete. He was undefeated in college in the discus and shot put and set a then-world record discus mark of 155-2 in 1916. He is the only person to win national track titles in two events three consecutive years. Selected in 1969 to Wisconsin's all-time football team, Mucks officiated Big Ten football games following his playing career. He is a member of the State of Wisconsin and University of Wisconsin Athletic Halls of Fame.

Paul Meyers (1919)

End Paul Meyers earned first-team all-America honors from Walter Eckersall as a senior. Meyers was an all-Big Ten choice in both 1916 and 1919. The three-year letterman, who played for three different coaches, was Badger team captain and a third-team all-America choice by Eckersall in 1916.

Charles Carpenter (1919)

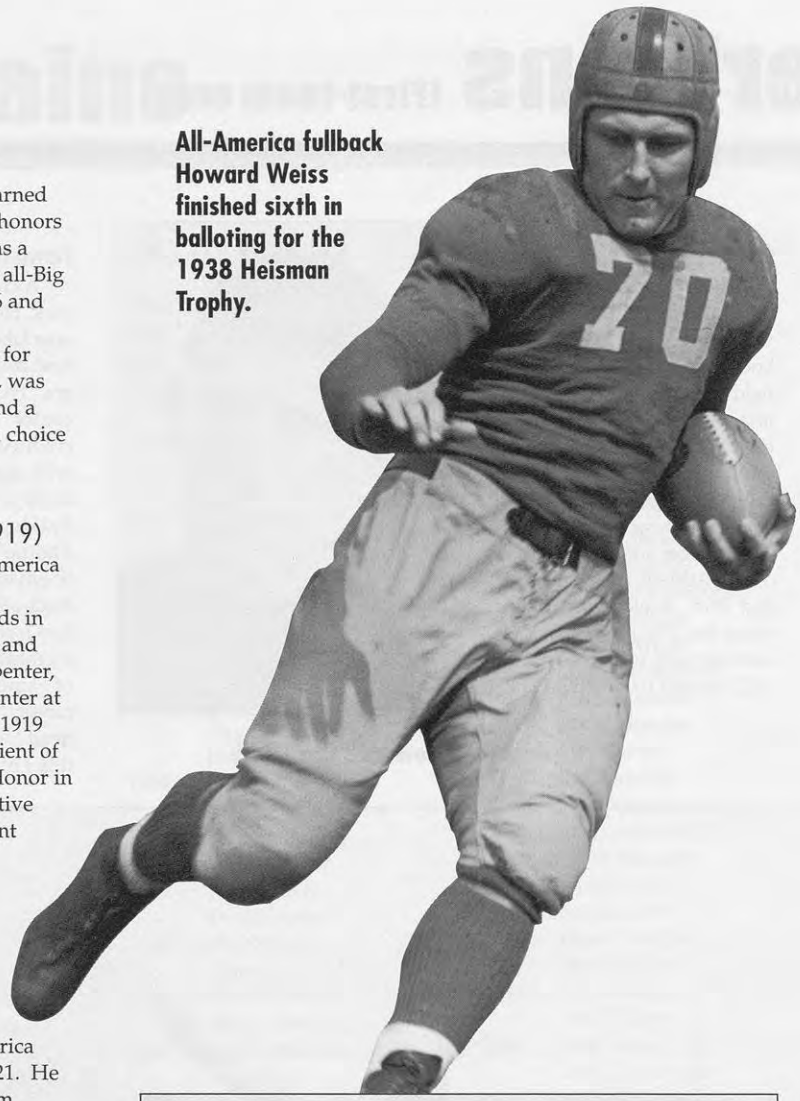
The two-time all-America center made Walter Eckersall's honor squads in both 1916 (third-team) and 1919 (first-team). Carpenter, the first all-America center at the UW, captained the 1919 squad. He was a recipient of the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1919. The Madison native later served as president of the UW Athletic Board.

George Bunge (1920)

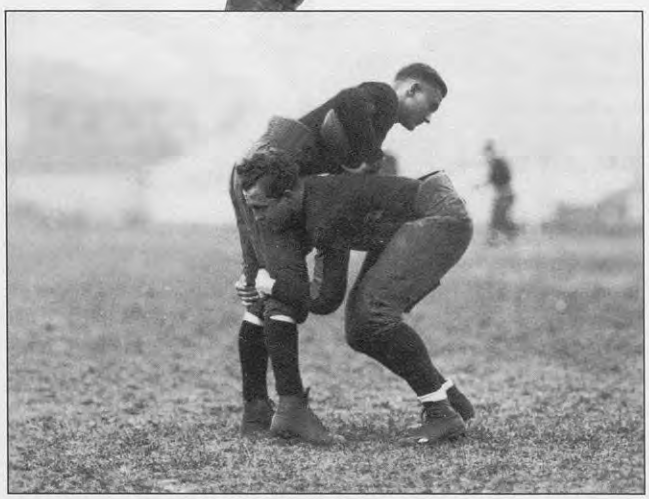
Center George Bunge earned all-America honors in 1920 and 1921. He was accorded first-team recognition in 1920 by Lawrence Perry of Consolidated Press. Bunge earned third-team honors by both Charles Parker and INS as a senior in 1921. The Badgers posted a three-year mark of 16-4-1, including a second-place Big Ten finish in 1920, during his career.

Ralph Scott (1920)

An all-conference and Walter Camp all-America tackle in 1920, Scott was noted for his outstanding blocking ability on offense. The giant 210 pounder also played tackle on defense for the 1920 Badgers who went 6-1 and finished second in the Big Ten.



All-America fullback Howard Weiss finished sixth in balloting for the 1938 Heisman Trophy.



Marty Below, an all-American in 1923, demonstrates the proper tackling technique of his era.

Frank Weston (1920)

One of the truly great multi-sport athletes of his era, Frank "Red" Weston also carried his talents beyond the sports arena. A letterwinner three times in football and twice in basketball, he was a member of the UW Medical School faculty for more than 40 years. Weston also served as senior class president in 1921. On the gridiron, he was captain of the 1920 team and was named all-America by four organizations. He was a member of the school's Athletic Board and was enshrined into the Madison Sports and Wisconsin Athletic Department Halls of Fame.

Marty Below (1923)

A transfer from UW-Oshkosh, Marty Below played tackle for the Badgers and was a first-team all-American by INS, Athletic World and Walter Eckersall in 1923. At UW-Oshkosh Below was a four-sport star after serving in the Marines during World War I. Inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1988, he was praised by Red Grange who once said, "Marty was the greatest lineman I ever played against."

Milo Lubratovich (1930)

A tackle, who broke his leg against Alabama as a sophomore, Milo Lubratovich rebounded two years later to become a consensus all-American and play in the East-West Game. Lubratovich received all-America mention from 10 different publications, including first-team honors from NEA, UP and Hearst. He also played professional baseball in the Brooklyn Dodgers organization from 1931-35.

Howard Weiss (1938)

After converting to fullback from halfback three games into his sophomore year, Howard Weiss went on to earn Big Ten MVP and all-America honors in 1938. He was a first-team choice by INS and was a second-team choice by four organizations. He is perhaps best remembered for his 41-yard touchdown run through the entire Northwestern defense in a 1938 upset win at Evanston. Elected class president, Weiss was sixth in the 1938 Heisman Trophy balloting and later played two years with the Detroit Lions.

Dave Schreiner (1941-42)

Wisconsin's first two-time first-team all-American, Dave Schreiner was considered one of the finest ends to ever play college football. Schreiner was a two-time AP all-America choice. He was named conference MVP in 1942, the year he caught three touchdown passes in one quarter against Marquette. He was drafted by the Detroit Lions. A member of the National Football Foundation and Wisconsin State Athletic Halls of Fame, Schreiner died in World War II in 1945.

Marlin Harder (1942)

Junior all-American Marlin "Pat" Harder was one of Wisconsin's greatest fullbacks. Despite a college career that was cut short by his enlistment with the Marines, Harder teamed with Elroy "Crazylegs" Hirsch to lead the Badgers to an 8-1-1 record that included a 17-7 win over eventual national champion Ohio State. Also a placekicker, he led the conference in scoring in both 1941 and 1942. He was named MVP of the 1943 College All-Star Game after scoring two touchdowns. The second pick in the 1943 NFL draft, Harder played for the Chicago Cardinals and the Detroit Lions. He led the NFL in scoring three years and later served as an NFL official for 17 years.

Earl Girard (1944)

A multi-sport star, Earl "Jug" Girard played two seasons at the UW (1944 and 1947) and earned all-America recognition as a 17-year-old freshman. Regarded as a "triple-threat" quarterback, he was proficient at running, passing and punting. Girard was drafted by the U.S. Army after his freshman season and returned to school in 1947. He holds the school record for most punt return yards in a game with 158 when he scored two touchdowns against Iowa in 1947. Girard was drafted in the first round by the Green Bay Packers, and he also spent time in the Cleveland Indians' baseball farm system.

Ed Withers (1950)

An all-city football and basketball player at Madison Central High School, Ed Withers came to the UW after serving a year in the Army. The aggressive defensive back had eight career interceptions and probably would have had more if opposing quarterbacks weren't instructed to avoid throwing in his direction. Withers' three interceptions helped lead Wisconsin to a 14-0 victory over Iowa in his all-America year. His 103 interception return yards in that game are tied for the most in UW history. The school's first black all-American, Withers was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in 1951.

All-America end Pat O'Donahue.

Alan Ameche (1953-54)

The school's most famed player, Alan "The Horse" Ameche was a first-team all-American in both 1953 and 1954. He is also the only player in Wisconsin history to win the Heisman Trophy (1954). Ameche set numerous records as a fullback, including the NCAA and Big Ten mark for career rushing yardage.

A two-time academic all-American, he was selected in the first round of the 1955 NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts. Ameche ran for a 79-yard touchdown on his first NFL carry and also scored the winning TD in overtime of the 1958 NFL title game against the New York Giants.

A member of the Wisconsin State and National Football Foundation Halls of Fame, Ameche was voted Wisconsin's all-time greatest player by fans in 1969. Ameche was also inducted into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame in the spring of 1992.

Harold Faverty (1951)

Like so many other Wisconsin athletes during his era, Harold Faverty sandwiched his playing days around service in the Armed Forces. As a 25-year-old senior, he was one of the most experienced players on the 1951 squad. A roommate of fellow all-American Pat O'Donahue, Faverty was one of few Badgers that played on both sides of the ball. He played linebacker on the "Hard Rocks" defense, which allowed a school-record 5.9 points per game.

Pat O'Donahue (1951)

A senior on the 1951 team that went 7-1-1 and finished eighth in the Associated Press poll, Pat O'Donahue was a fixture on Wisconsin's top-ranked defense. He was a quiet player who led by example. A penetrator on the line, O'Donahue played on the 1949-51 teams and was named all-American as an end in his final season. He played with the San Francisco 49ers and Green Bay Packers and was inducted into the UW Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

Dave Suminski (1952)

All-Big Ten choice and all-American Dave Suminski earned those honors in his first year as a defensive tackle. An anchor on Wisconsin's 1953 Rose Bowl defensive unit, he started the previous two seasons on the offensive line. In his last college game, the Badger defense held USC to just 48 yards rushing. Suminski was taken by the Redskins in the 1953 NFL draft and later played with the Chicago Cardinals and Hamilton Tiger Cats.

Don Voss (1952)

Don Voss was one of the top defensive ends in Wisconsin history, even though his football career was ended by a knee injury in the spring of his senior season. In his first year, he was named to the AP freshman all-America team and was a member of Wisconsin's "Hard Rocks," the best defensive unit in the country. A year later he helped guide the Badgers to Pasadena and their first-ever bowl game and was the youngest member of the 1952 Look all-America team.

Don Voss was the youngest member of the 1952 Look magazine all-America team. His career was ended by a serious knee injury in the spring of his senior season.

Dan Lanphear (1959)

Madison native Dan Lanphear rebounded from an injury-plagued junior season to gain all-America honors in his final year. Also a captain of the UW track and field team, his best game on the gridiron may have been Wisconsin's 12-3 victory over Ohio State in 1959. In that contest, Lanphear recovered a fumble, blocked a punt for a safety, and knocked two Buckeye running backs out of the game with strong hits. He went on to play defensive end for the AFL's Houston Oilers and was a member of their league championship teams in 1960 and 1961.

Pat Richter (1961-62)

Wisconsin's last nine-time letterwinner, Pat Richter earned three letters each in football, basketball and baseball. On the gridiron, the Madison native was a two-time all-America end, earning consensus honors in 1962. He led the Big Ten in receiving in 1961 and 1962 and topped the conference in punting his senior year. He set Rose Bowl records in 1963 with 11 catches for 163 yards, marks that stood for 31 years. A first-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins, Richter played professionally for eight seasons. He is a member of Wisconsin's all-time team and won an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1988. Richter was named the school's Director of Athletics in 1989 and still holds the post. Richter joined Ameche as a member of the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1994.

Ray Snell (1979)

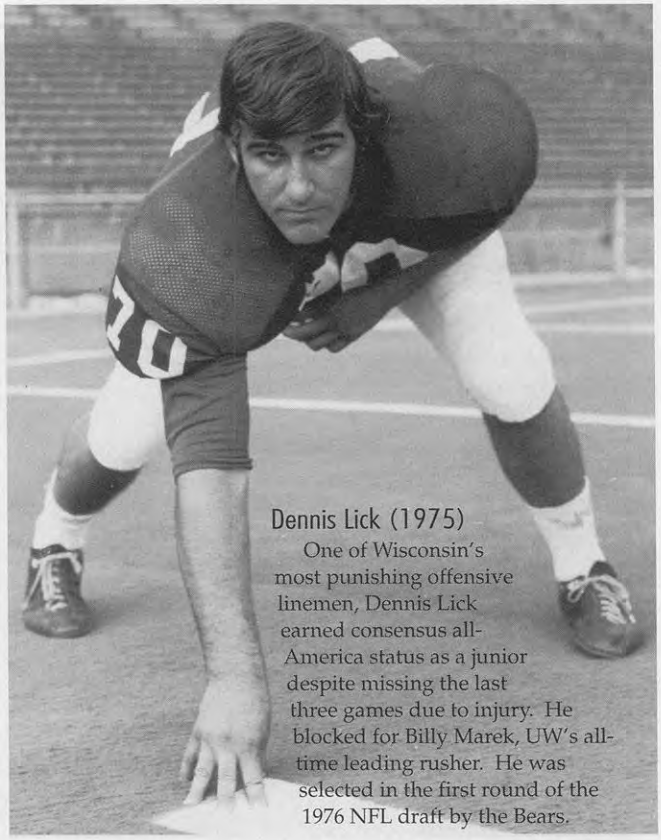
Baltimore native Ray Snell was a first-team all-America pick by The Sporting News as an offensive guard in 1979. The 295-pound lineman, known for his speed and agility, blocked for Ira Matthews and Dave Mohapp at Wisconsin. Snell was the 22nd pick overall (by Tampa Bay) in the first round of the 1980 NFL draft.

Tim Krumrie (1981)

An all-Big Ten pick at noseguard his last three seasons, Tim Krumrie earned consensus all-America recognition his junior year. He is second on Wisconsin's career tackles list with 444, more than 100 stops ahead of the closest defensive lineman. Krumrie was a member of UW's 1981 Garden State Bowl team and earned 1982 Independence Bowl Defensive MVP honors. A 10th-round draft pick by the Cincinnati Bengals, he enjoyed a lengthy NFL career and played in the Super Bowl.

Matt Vanden Boom (1981)

Two-time all-Big Ten pick Matt Vanden Boom is one of four defensive backs in Wisconsin history to earn first-team all-America mention. He accomplished the feat in 1981 as a junior safety when he intercepted six passes and broke up six more. Vanden Boom was also named a second-team academic all-American in 1982. He was taken in the fifth round by the Buffalo Bills in the 1985 draft.



Dennis Lick (1975)

One of Wisconsin's most punishing offensive linemen, Dennis Lick earned consensus all-America status as a junior despite missing the last three games due to injury. He blocked for Billy Marek, UW's all-time leading rusher. He was selected in the first round of the 1976 NFL draft by the Bears.

WISCONSIN'S RETIRED NUMBERS

35

Alan Ameche is one of the greatest backs in UW history and the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner. Nicknamed "The Horse," he was a two-time all-American and ended his career as the NCAA's all-time leading rusher. He led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl, where he rushed for 133 yards against USC. The five-time Pro Bowl pick was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1975.

40

Although he played football only one season at Wisconsin, Elroy Hirsch is one of the most beloved figures in Badger sports history. Hirsch, nicknamed "Crazylegs," rushed for 786 yards for Wisconsin's 8-1-1 team in 1942. He also starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams before returning to Wisconsin as Director of Athletics from 1969-87.

80

Dave Schreiner, the two-time all-America end (junior and senior) was named Western (later the Big Ten) Conference Player of the Year in 1942. Schreiner lettered three seasons at Wisconsin as an end both on offense and defense. He is a member of the National Football Foundation and the National W Club Halls of Fame and the University of Wisconsin's all-time team.

83

The memory of former QB Allan Shafer is continued with the "Living Memorial" Scholarship that is given in his name. Shafer was fatally injured during the 1944 Wisconsin-Iowa game. Shafer is one of two Badgers (Jay Seiler is the other) to die from a football injury.

Richard Johnson (1984)

A speedy defensive back with a knack for blocking kicks, Richard Johnson was named to multiple first-team all-America lists in 1985. He set the career mark at Wisconsin for blocked kicks with nine. Johnson was honored as Sports Illustrated's national defensive player of the week for his effort in Wisconsin's 35-34 comeback victory at Missouri in 1984. Johnson blocked two kicks, intercepted a pass and recovered a blocked punt for a touchdown against the Tigers. He was a 1985 first-round draft pick by Houston.

Paul Gruber (1987)

Wisconsin native Paul Gruber left Wisconsin as one of the school's best offensive linemen. A player with tremendous size, strength and speed, he was regarded by some as the top college offensive lineman in '87. Gruber graduated to the pro ranks in 1988 when he was taken fourth overall by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Gruber earned All-Pro honors several times with the Bucs and played six consecutive seasons without missing an offensive snap.

Troy Vincent (1991)

After playing just one year of high school football, Troy Vincent blossomed into one of the country's best cornerbacks and punt returners. A 1991 all-America selection, Vincent was honored as the Big Ten's co-Defensive Player of the Year after setting Badger season and career records for passes broken up (13 and 31). The UW's record holder for career punt return yards returned punts for TDs his final three seasons. He was taken by the Miami Dolphins as the seventh overall choice in the 1992 draft.

Cory Raymer (1994)

The most celebrated player of the Barry Alvarez era, Cory Raymer was Wisconsin's first consensus all-America pick in 13 years. Raymer earned first-team all-America mention by AP, UPI, AFCA, Walter Camp, The Sporting News, Football News and College Sports magazine. He was a four-year starter who allowed just one-half of a sack in his last three seasons. A two-time first-team all-Big Ten pick, he played a large role in increasing the team's rushing average from 94 to 244 yards per game during his career.

Consensus all-America center Cory Raymer.

All-time Team

Wisconsin's All-time Greatest Player, as selected by fans, was Alan Ameche. He was the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner and set an NCAA record for career rushing yards. Ameche, who was also an academic all-American, went onto a successful professional football career. After completing his professional gridiron days, Ameche retired in the Philadelphia area where he became one of the city's philanthropic leaders.

In conjunction with the centennial celebration of college football in 1969, Wisconsin fans were asked to select the University's all-time team.

The 11-man unit features Heisman Trophy winner Alan Ameche, who was voted Wisconsin's "All-time Greatest Player." Ameche, a two-time all-American, concluded his career as the NCAA's career rushing leader.

Wisconsin's All-Time Team

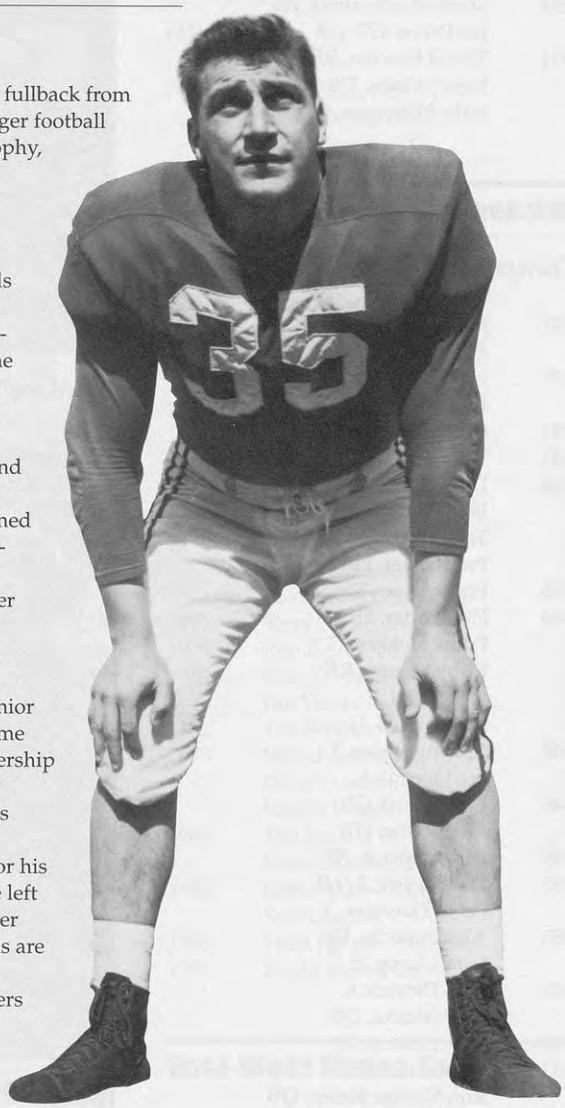
Heisman Trophy

Alan Ameche

'54 Heisman Trophy winner



Alan Ameche, the bruising fullback from Kenosha, Wis., is the only Badger football player to win the Heisman Trophy, given to college football's top player.

Ameche, a two-time all-American, won the trophy in 1954 after rushing for 641 yards and nine touchdowns.

Additionally, he made first-team all-America squads by the Football Writers' Association, Look, NEA, Paramount News, All-Academic, Athletic Publications, Catholic Weekly and UNICO (National Italian Association). He was also named United Press National Back-of-the-Year as a senior.

The Big Ten's leading rusher twice in his career, Ameche brought much distinction and honor to the UW. He was an academic all-American as a junior and senior. Ameche also became the first Badger to earn membership in the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. He was inducted in 1992.

Nicknamed "The Horse" for his rugged running style, Ameche left Wisconsin as the NCAA's career rushing leader. His 3,345 yards are currently fourth in Wisconsin history. Ameche led the Badgers to a 26-8-3 record during his career and a berth in the 1953 Rose Bowl.

DID YOU KNOW THAT ...

Darrell Bevell could become just the fifth quarterback in Big Ten history to complete 60 percent of his career passes and throw for more than 7,000 yards. Bevell enters his senior season with a .600 completion rate and 5,413 yards.

The other league quarterbacks to accomplish that feat are Iowa's Chuck Long and the Illinois trio of Jack Trudeau, Jason Verduzco and Tony Eason.

STARRING ON THE GRIDIRON & THE TRACK

Playing wide receiver and starring on the track is common at the University of Wisconsin. Shown below are four Badger gridiron players who also excelled in track.

Reggie Torian (top left) was the Big Ten Track Athlete of the Year in his freshman season. He has won several Big Ten track titles and earned all-America status.

Former New York Jet Al Toon (top right), the school's career receiving leader, was an all-America and Big Ten champion triple jumper.

Tony Simmons takes a handoff from Lee DeRamus (bottom) in a 1993 dual. Simmons set a Big Ten freshman receiving record last fall, and DeRamus is the UW's single-season yardage leader. Simmons placed third in the 100 meters at the league meet as a freshman.

DID YOU KNOW THAT ...

Wisconsin and Northwestern are the only schools in the Big Ten that have produced the league receiving champion three years in a row. The Badgers' Pat Richter (1961-62) and Rick Reichardt (1963) topped the Big Ten in receiving three straight seasons.

Pre-modern Records

The National Collegiate Athletic Association recognizes official football statistics and records beginning with the 1946 season. The NCAA does not recognize marks set prior to the "modern era." Many great performances were turned in by Badgers prior to that season.

Following are some of the individual efforts by Wisconsin players, prior to the 1946 season, which would rank on the school's all-time lists.

Rushing Tandems

QUITE A PAIR

Wisconsin's tailback tandem of Terrell Fletcher and Brent Moss was one of the most effective in college football history the last two years.

The duo combined for 2,633 yards as juniors (eighth most in NCAA history) and 2,309 yards as seniors (30th). Fletcher and Moss gained the second-most yardage in NCAA history by the same backfield in consecutive years. SMU's Eric Dickerson and Craig James gained 5,130 yards in the 1981-82 seasons.

IT'S FILLED NOW

When Coach Barry Alvarez came to Wisconsin in 1990, the school was coming off a season when it averaged only 41,734 fans per home game. That was the lowest average in 45 seasons.

During the Alvarez era, Wisconsin has ranked third (in 1990 and 1992) and first (in 1994) nationally in average home attendance increase. With the facility now filled to 98 percent capacity, the UW can no longer make this list unless the school adds more seats to the Stadium.

Badgers at No. 1

Wisconsin has been ranked as the nation's No. 1 team just once in school history. That was on Oct. 7, 1952, after a 20-6 win over Illinois. The Badgers lost the next week to Ohio State but went on to a 6-3-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth.

Upsets at No. 1

Wisconsin has defeated the nation's top-rated team three times in its history. The most recent was a 21-14 victory over Michigan in the 1981 season opener.

Listed below are the Badgers' upsets over No. 1-ranked teams.

1942 — Ohio State, 17-7
1962 — N'western, 37-6
1981 — Michigan, 21-14

Beating the nation's No. 1-rated squad has been a good omen for the Badgers. The 1942 club posted an 8-1-1 record; the 1962 team played in the Rose Bowl; and the 1981 squad participated in the Garden State Bowl.

Series Notes

Wisconsin has faced Michigan State just 37 times, the fewest of any league foe except Penn State ... MSU leads the series 24-13, including an 11-8 edge in Madison ... the Badgers' 41-20 win in Tokyo clinched the 1993 Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl ... that win broke an eight-game Michigan State winning streak ... Alvarez is 1-4 vs. Michigan State, and Saban has never faced Wisconsin.

Series Notes

A tie last season was the eighth in the series ... Bucky has tied Purdue (along with Minnesota) more than any other foe ... the Badgers are undefeated (2-0-1) in the last three meetings ... since 1974, the visiting team has a better record in the series ... Wisconsin is 5-3 at PU, and the Boilers are 4-3-2 in Madison ... Alvarez is 2-1-1 vs. Purdue, and Colletto is 1-2-1 against Wisconsin.

Series Notes

These state schools have split 70 prior meetings ... Wisconsin has never trailed in the series after winning the first six encounters ... A tie in 1984 is the only game Iowa has failed to win vs. the UW since 1976 ... The schools have not met for two years ... Wisconsin and Iowa have, however, protected each other on future Big Ten schedules to guarantee continuous meetings in the future ... Alvarez is 0-3 vs. Iowa, and Fry is 13-0-1 vs. UW.

Series Notes

The Badgers' win last season gave Wisconsin back-to-back triumphs over the Fighting Illini for the first time since 1969-70 ... it also earned Bucky a Hall of Fame Bowl berth and sent Illinois to the Liberty Bowl ... UW last won three straight over Illinois between 1952-54 ... prior to the Badgers' two-game streak, Illinois had won 11 of 12 meetings ... Alvarez is 2-3 against Illinois, and Tepper is 1-2 vs. Wisconsin.

Releases & Statistics

Big Ten Fax-on-Demand — The Big Ten Conference uses the latest in technology to better serve the media. The Conference and its member schools provide 24-hour access to the latest press releases, statistics and notes on Big Ten sports. Media members simply call the Fax-On-Demand phone number (available through the Big Ten Office) and request the information they wish to receive. Requested information will be faxed back immediately.

Because of this technology, the University of Wisconsin no longer mails its football release (notes, depth, statistics) to media personnel.

Credentials

Press box — Requests for credentials to cover Wisconsin football should be sent on company letterhead to: Steve Malchow, Sports Information Director, University of Wisconsin, 1440 Monroe Street, Madison, WI 53711. The fax number is (608) 262-8184. Requests should be received at least one week in advance of the game. Credentials are either mailed or left at Media Will Call (gate 6).

Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities: 1) television and radio stations originating a live broadcast; 2) national publications and newspapers filing for the following day's publication; 3) newspapers designated by the visiting sports information director; 4) television and radio stations covering for nightly news; and 5) all other requests will be evaluated on a space-available basis. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not allowed in the media areas as dictated by the NCAA Media Guidelines book.

Photographers— Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers, TV reporters and camera operators on assignment. You must display both a credential and an armband prominently to be on the field level. Your game credential alone will not give you access to the sidelines. Armbands can be picked up in the Reinke Room of the Wisconsin Field House. Flipcards and refreshments are available in the Reinke Room two hours prior to kickoff. Media members cannot shoot between the 25-yard lines. Wisconsin follows NCAA and Big Ten guidelines regarding event photography.

Parking — A very limited number of parking passes are available to working media. They will be issued on a first-come, first-served basis.

Game-day Services

Media services — Working facilities for the press are located on the fourth level of the Communications Center. Flipcards, notes and programs are delivered to each working location prior to kickoff. A complete statistical package will be available after the game.

Fax service — Final game statistics are entered immediately after the game on the Big Ten's Fax-On-Demand service.

Interviews — With approximately four minutes left in the game, media members will be escorted to the interview areas by Associate SID Justin Doherty. Coach Barry Alvarez meets the media in the McClain Auditorium (second floor). Requested players are available in the weight room (lower level of McClain facility). The Wisconsin locker room is closed to the media.

Phones — Several courtesy phone lines on the first and second rows of the press area (level four of the Communications Center) are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Media requiring their own phones should call Wisconsin Bell (800/447-7738) to order lines. Additionally, contact UW Telecommunications (608/262-0521) to confirm that lines have been ordered from Wisconsin Bell.

Interview Requests

Practices — All Wisconsin practices, including Friday walk-throughs, are closed. Alvarez and players are available after practice according to the following guidelines.

Players — Badger players can be interviewed during the week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice (approximately 6 p.m.). Phone calls by players to out-of-town media are made at the players' convenience between 7:30-10 p.m. CT on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Interviews should be arranged through the Sports Information Office (608/262-1811) by noon of the day the player is requested. Home numbers will not be made available to media members, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval.

Head Coach — Barry Alvarez holds a weekly media conference Mondays at 1 p.m. in the "W" Club Room. Alvarez is available after practice Tuesday through Friday. Audio cuts from Alvarez' Monday press conference are available after 4 p.m. on Mondays by calling (608) 263-3100. Comments from Alvarez' Monday media session are also available through the league's Fax-on-Demand System.

Additionally, Alvarez is available every Tuesday from 11:50-noon CT on the Big Ten Teleconference. Media should call the Big Ten Communications Department (708/696-1010) to get the phone number to access the weekly teleconference. These sessions are for media use only.

BIG TEN TELECONFERENCE

Throughout the Big Ten football season, media members can gain access to conference coaches on Tuesdays via the Big Ten Teleconference. For the phone number, media members should contact the Big Ten Conference Communications Department at (708) 696-1010.

Each coach will be on the line for 10 minutes according to the schedule below. Questions will be limited to the media from that coaches' Saturday opponent. If time remains after those questions, media members not covering that coaches' game may ask questions. Times listed are central time zone.

11:00-11:10 ..... John Cooper
11:10-11:20 ..... Lloyd Carr

Badgers on Radio

For the second straight year, exclusive radio coverage of Badger football will be heard on the 43-station Wisconsin Radio Network. The University Athletic Department and Learfield Communications entered into an agreement for radio broadcast rights for Wisconsin football and basketball.

WIBA (1310 AM) and WOLX (94.9 FM) are the rights holders in the Madison market, and WTMJ (620 AM) carries the games in Milwaukee (see the accompanying affiliates list for the station in your area).

Entering his second season as football play-by-play announcer is Matt Lepay. He has served as voice of Badger basketball the past seven seasons. A 1984 graduate of Ohio State, Lepay was Sports Director at WTSO in Madison before joining WIBA in 1994. He previously served as Sports Director at WNCI in Columbus, Ohio, and prior to that worked at stations in Athens and Piqua, Ohio.

Joining Lepay on broadcasts for both football and basketball is Mike Lucas, long-time sports columnist at the Capital Times. Lucas, who worked on the broadcast team for Wisconsin's delay TV package before assuming color commentary duties on the radio, also provides daily sports commentaries on WIBA.

OUTSIDE OF MADISON?

Just dial 800-846-4749, punch in the Wisconsin team access code, and listen to live radio broadcasts of Badger football in 1995. The service is provided by TRZ Teamline. Fans, regardless of locale, can listen to exciting play-by-play every week. A valid VISA or MasterCard is required.

Television Coverage

Badgers on Television

The resurgence of Wisconsin football has increased live television exposure for the Badgers dramatically. With the help of conference TV agreements with ESPN and ABC, the Badgers have appeared on national or regional television 14 times in the last two seasons.

Two games for the 1995 season have already been selected by the major networks for coverage. The Badgers' opener vs. Colorado on Sept. 2 will be shown by ABC, beginning at 7 p.m. CT. Wisconsin's first trip to Penn State since the Nittany Lions joined the Big Ten will be aired by ESPN starting at 4:45 p.m. CT.

Additional Wisconsin games may be selected for live television coverage, but those schedules are not released until 1-2 weeks prior to the games.

For the 20th consecutive season, Badger home football games will be televised on a delayed basis by Wisconsin Public Television. The Madison affiliate is WHA (channel 21 or cable channel 11). Broadcast across the state educational network, Badger replays air Saturdays at 10:30 p.m. The network includes WHA-Madison, WPNE-Green Bay, WLEF-Park Falls, WHWC-Menomonie, WHLA-La Crosse, WHRM-Wausau and WMVT-Milwaukee.

Barry Alvarez Television Show

The "Barry Alvarez Television Show," hosted by WISC sports director Jeff Lenzen, is a 30-minute program of highlights, interviews and features on Badger football. Seven stations — WISC-Madison (11 a.m.), WISN-Milwaukee (11 a.m.), WSAW-Wausau (11 a.m.), WFRV-Green Bay (11 a.m.), WXOW-La Crosse (11:05 p.m.), WQOW-Eau Claire (11:05 p.m.) and WJMN-Marquette, Mich. (11 a.m.) — show the program each Sunday.

Turn right onto Regent Street. Follow Regent to Camp Randall Stadium.

Sports Information

Steve Malchow

Steve Malchow is in his sixth season as Director of Sports Information at the University of Wisconsin. He is in charge of publicity for all 11 Badger men's sports programs.

Malchow worked from 1979-89 at Iowa as a student, graduate and full-time assistant in the Sports Information Office before accepting his post at the UW-Madison.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), which has honored more than 30 of his press guides for excellence. His 1985 football and basketball books at Iowa were rated first and second in the nation, respectively.

The 1983 graduate of Iowa earned degrees in marketing, journalism and management sciences. He is a member of the College Football and Basketball Writer's Associations. A native of Sioux City, Iowa, Steve is single and resides in Madison.

Justin Doherty

Justin Doherty begins his first full season as Associate Sports Information Director at Wisconsin after two-and-a-half years as SID at North Dakota.

Doherty will coordinate publicity efforts for men's basketball and assist with football. He serves as editor of the football and basketball game programs and oversees sports information tasks for golf, tennis and swimming.

At UND he directed publicity efforts for a 15-sport athletics program. Prior to that assignment, Doherty was assistant SID at Northern Michigan (1990-92). He was sports editor at the Marshall (Mich.) Chronicle for eight months after earning a bachelor's degree in journalism from Michigan State. He was a student assistant in MSU sports information office from 1984-89.

A native of Southfield, Mich., Doherty and his wife, Martha, live in Madison.

Julie Kluge

Julie Kluge is in her sixth campaign as a full-time member of the UW Sports Information staff. She has worked for the University's Department of Athletics since 1984.

Kluge directs publicity for the Badgers' nationally recognized hockey, cross country and track teams. She assists with UW football. The 1988 graduate of Wisconsin has B.S. degrees in zoology and secondary education.

Kluge is editor of both the Wisconsin hockey media guide and game program. Her cross country and hockey media guides have earned national distinction from the College Sports Information Director's of America (CoSIDA).

Julie was also an assistant director in the publicity office of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (1989).

A native of Benton, Wis., she is single and lives in Fitchburg.
